Pinchot Not To Modify Program Warning Sounded

Governor Pinchot Chides Legislators For Non-Passage Of Relief Bills

POLITICAL FOES PLANNING REPLY

State Executive Satisfied That Relief Program Is Best One Yet Found

By LEO V. DOLAN

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27.—Repercussions were awaited today in the wake of Gov. Gifford Pinchot's flat warning that his taxation program for unemployment relief will not be modified, and his veiled chiding of the legislators for non-passage of relief measures after three weeks of effort in the special session.

Political observers were free in predicting that anti-administration leaders, and the group of house members which drafted a program diametrically opposed to that of the governor's, would not be slow in replying.

Pinchot Is Firm.

In commenting on the new program, which contemplates new appropriation for unemployment relief without the imposition of additional taxation, as against the $129,000,000 tax program fostered by him, Governor Pinchot had this to say:

"The program which I suggested is the best program I could suggest

PA NEWC OBSERVES

One sad disappointment came to New Castle fans who sat in the packed Pitt stadium yesterday to watch the Panthers trounce the Nebraska boys, and it came early in the game. Just as soon as Halfback Paul Reider was hurt, the game for many had ended. There were scores who went from here to see the former Ne-Ca-Hi star perform on a college gridiron.

Overshoes weren't out of place this morning, and the looks of things indicated many thought that way. The sudden snowfall chased the hopes of those summer-loving folks who declared up and down that we'd get no snow for some time.

A lady on North Mercer street this morning can claim the honor of being the first person of the year to slip and fall on a sleety pavement. She didn't seem to appreciate the distinction, however.

News of the train derailment at Wellington, Mo., resulting in seven deaths several days ago, was of especial interest to C. L. Brenneman, of Volant, who knew of several of the victims. The train carried valuable livestock and was headed to the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago. Mr. Brenneman is exhibiting cattle at that exposition.

Offer Of Marriage For $10,000 No Lure

(International News Service)

CHARLEROI, Nov. 27.—No proposals of marriage have yet been received by Mary H. Clowes, pretty waitress, of New Eagle, Eagle, near here, who offered herself in marriage to "any respectable man" who would give her $10,000 for the care of her parents, she regretfully announced today.

"I don't care what happens to me," she said. "I'll use the $10,000 to build a house and give my mother and father in Misco, O., a bank account."

The mother is 60 years old and crippled and her father is 70 and unemployed.

Nurse Is Killed; Struck By Auto

(International News Service)

BRADFORD, Pa., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Ruth Fish, 34-year-old nurse of Riverside Junction, was killed instantly early today at Limestone when she was said to have walked into the path of a car driven by Ralph Emery Wilson, also of Limestone.

The victim suffered a fractured skull. Police said Mrs. Fish had just alighted from the car of George Mouser, on the Quaker bridge, and was crossing the highway to the home of Mrs. Cora Fargo when she was struck.

Wilson was absolved of blame in the accident by County Coroner Dr. Bourne, who issued a verdict of accidental death.

Only Cure Is Hand Of God Declares Dr. Xander At Service Thursday

Large Crowd At Union Church Service Of Thanksgiving In Cathedral

"A prolonged financial spree since the World War has given us a financial headache, which can only be cured by the hand of God" said Dr. E. Clyde Xander, president of Thiel College, as he addressed a devoutly thankful crowd which filled the first floor and balcony of the Cathedral Thursday morning as the congregations of various churches of the city gathered in the annual union Thanksgiving service, under the auspices of the Ministerial Association.

While the audience was gathering Mrs. Mary Virginia Patterson, organist of the First Christian church, played a most appropriate organ prelude.

Program Opens

Dr. G. S. Bennett, vice president of the Ministerial Association presided in the absence of Dr. S. L. Maxwell, and led in the reading in unison of the Twenty Third Psalm. Rev. F. E. Stough read the Thanksgiving scripture lesson and Dr. H. C. Weaver offered the prayer of the morning.

Rev. G. M. Landis read the President's Thanksgiving proclamation.

Dr. C. B. Wingerd then spoke on behalf of the benevolent purpose to which the offering of the morning would be given, that of the Mayor's Relief fund and at this time the ushers waited upon the congregation and after the expenses of the service were deducted the secretary, Ensign V. Thomsen had $162.86 to add to this fund.

The choir of the First Christian church sang the Thanksgiving anthem.

Dr. Bennett then introduced the Mayor's Fund Is Slowly Mounting

With the addition of $162.86 from the union Thanksgiving service in the Cathedral yesterday, and a few small donations received by Treasurer L. W. McClung, the mayor's relief fund today totals $2,295.

The dispensation of relief has been started by the committee at the auditorium, and the Salvation Army and Rescue Mission are starting the distribution of soup today, so that the amount which is now in the fund will soon be depleted.

With the sum of $1,250 weekly needed to take care of the demands of the unemployed, New Castle citizens will have to be more liberal in their contributions than they have since solicitation of funds was started, and approximately $200 daily will be needed to maintain the work of the committee for the balance of the winter.

Another instance of suffering in the city was brought to the attention of local club women this week, when a woman was found in bed in a home here suffering with inflammatory rheumatism. Her husband had deserted her and her five children, and in addition a crippled brother was found living under the same roof, the entire family being dependent upon the community for support. Some assistance was being received from the county, but not enough to sustain them properly.

Cases like this are being reported each day to the mayor's relief committee and to the local charitable organizations. Your contribution to the mayor's relief fund helps to relieve suffering in such homes as this.

New Castle citizens who have not yet contributed to the fund are asked to fill out the attached coupon and mail it to City Treasurer L. W. McClung, who is treasurer of the relief fund.

LOW WATER HAMPERS WORK OF FIREMEN

Fire Breaks Out In Hotel In Sarly Morning Hours —Bank Securities Saved

(International News Service)

HOPEWELL, Pa., Nov. 27.—With one building standing on the main thoroughfare and 10 business establishments and 21 dwellings in ruins, residents of this little mining town today turned their attention to necessity of finding new homes to replace those destroyed by a fire which swept the town yesterday with loss estimated at more than $250,00.

More than a fourth of the total population of 450 were homeless today, sheltered by neighbors here or with friends at Bedford, five miles away.

Virtually every commercial establishment was in ruins and residents faced necessity of bringing in all foodstuffs and fuel from Bedford.

Started in Hotel.

The blaze, starting in the basement of the Hopewell hotel, spread rapidly through the frame building and by the time an alarm was sounded the hotel was wrapped in flames and nearby buildings were ignited.

Within a few minutes, the entire business section was ablaze and calls for aid were sent to every fire department within 20 miles. Companies responding to the alarms

New Fire Truck Arrives In City

After Inspection Will Be Assigned To Second Ward Fire House

PRESENT TRUCK TO BE KEPT IN SERVICE

It will not be long until the new American La France fire fighting apparatus purchased by the city at a cost of $6,000, is placed on duty in the Second ward fire station as the equipment arrived via the Erie railroad today. The equipment will be unloaded following an inspection by an engineer of the fire equipment manufacturing concern.

The equipment will replace the truck now on duty in the Second ward. The truck now used to fight blazes on the North Hill will be kept in reserve duty.

During council meeting today, Councilman Reeves, head of the department of public safety presented the request of Fire Chief Lynn that 1,000 feet of 2½ fire hose be purchased.

Lynn's letter explained that the department proposes to use the present Second ward equipment on reserve and the hose will be needed.

Councilman Reeves offered a motion directing the city clerk to advertise for bids for the new hose and the motion passed unanimously.

Mrs. West became ill last week during her husband's trial and died Wednesday morning. She had previously been in ill-health the family said.

CITY FIREMEN PASS HOLIDAY IN QUIET WAY

If fire damaged anything in New Castle during yesterday's holiday observance it must have been confined to the tasty Thanksgiving turkey or chicken dinners roasting in the oven, there wasn't much for city firemen to do.

During the 24 hours from 9 a. m. Thursday to 9 o'clock this morning not a single fire alarm was turned in, the Central station reported.

With the first fall of snow that greeted the city this morning appeared the safety chains on the wheels of the city's fire-fighting apparatus. It was the first time this season that it was necessary to take this precaution.

The blanket of snow on hills about the city often make it difficult for the huge engines to climb the grades without chains.

BLANKET OF SNOW SEEN IN DISTRICT

(International News Service)

King winter fixed his hold firmly on Pennsylvania today and by way of showing his undisputed sway, waved his sceptre and produced a two-inch blanket of snow over virtually all the western section.

In some places, the white mantle was heavier, Kane reported the heaviest snow of the winter falling, with four inches on the ground and the fall continuing steadily. One inch of snow was reported at Franklin, with highways in the section slippery and state highway department crews on the alert to prevent accidents.

Snow Plows Out

At Ridgeway and in nearby towns, state highway employees got out the snow plows to clear roads of between four and five inches of snow. Householders shoveled their way outside this morning for milk and newspapers, and the fall was keeping up.

A blanket of snow and slush from 1½ to 3 inches deep spread over Pittsburgh and adjacent territory, slowing up highway and air travel and calling out snow plows for the first this season.

Motorists in the city and environs found the going slippery and num-

Rounds Out 42 Years As Wampum School Director

F. P. Major, One Of Leading Citizens, Soon To Leave For Beaver Falls

F. P. Major, former merchant of Wampum, is planning to leave the borough to make his home with a son in Beaver Falls. Mr. Major has made an enviable record in Wampum as a business man and public official.

He came to the village in 1872. In 1889 he was elected a member of the school board, and has served continually in that capacity for the past 42 years. It is doubtful if there is another school director in the state who can point to such a long continuous service.

There has not been a boy or girl graduated from the Wampum high school, whose diploma Mr. Major has not signed. He is still a member of the school board, but will resign before he leaves the borough.

Japanese Army Launches Attack Before Chinchow

Fighting Develops Along Peiping-Mukden Railway Is Report

TIENTSIN GARRISON REPULSES CHINESE

Martial Law Is Declared In Tientsin Following Clash Of Soldiers

International News Service Staff Correspondent

TOKYO, Nov. 28., Saturday, 12:45 a. m.—Japanese troops sweeping southward toward Chinchow in the wake of military planes which rained bombs on the important Manchurian railway city, have been retarded in their advance by a severe skirmish with Chinese forces south of Tahushan, according to word received here early today.

MUKDEN, Nov. 27.—Japanese army in South Manchuria today launched a general attack upon Chinese forces defending the city of Chinchow.

Fighting between Chinese and Japanese troops broke out along the Peiping-Mukden Railway presaging a decisive engagement for the control of the territory between Mukden and the Great Walls of China.

The Japanese advance began from several directions, troops being rushed to the front from Mukden, Newchwang and Changchun.

The operations were the most extensive that the Japanese have undertaken since the beginning of the Manchurian conflict, and had as their object the dispersal of all hostile Chinese forces in South Manchuria.

Orders To Advance

Orders to the Japanese to advance followed quickly receipt of information that the Chinese military headquarters at Peiping had ordered an attack upon the Japanese, with Chinchow as the base of operations.

Post Office Here In "Good Order" Inspector Learns

New Castle's post office building was inspected from top to bottom today by a government inspector from Washington, D. C., and found to be in perfect order.

"Your building is in a fine shape," commented the examiner, H. W. Franks, who lives in Laurens, S. C., to Postmaster Edwin Crawford as he completed his investigation. He makes a general inspection of the post offices in a number of states.

Mr. Franks left shortly before noon to inspect the Beaver Falls office.

His visit, Postmaster Crawford said, had nothing whatever to do with the construction of the new post office.

Castle was the unenviable experience of a local young man Wednesday night. He made the return trip Thursday night the same way.

There are fewer detour marks on the Pennsylvania State Highway maps at the present time than in many years. In the local district, there is but one detour between Meadville and Sheakleyville on the Perry Highway. There is a small detour in Clarion borough, traffic being routed over another street in the town. The map is kept posted in the lobby of The News.

The year's first snowfall was bountiful enough, and may indicate a regular winter. Last year, we had had several flurries by this time, but today's snow was a real heavy fall for this time of the year. Up until nine o'clock this morning, an inch and a half had fallen in the city, and reports from some of the rural districts were to the effect that as much as three inches of snow had fallen during the night.

The snow waited this year until after Thanksgiving Day before it started coming down. Last year and two years ago, there was quite a heavy snow on Thanksgiving Day. The present snow started falling during the night and this morning there were several inches on the ground in Western Pennsylvania.

Sleds and snow shovels were hauled out this morning for the first time this season. Coming at the vacation season for the school children the chance to coast was enjoyed. The use of the snow shovels wasn't quite so much a pleasure several householders report.

That many autos are still parked all night in the streets was very evident this morning. The heavy snow of the night covered the cars and left the street clear underneath.

As a part of the improvement of Laurel Boulevard, trees are being planted in the area between the two recently paved cartways. This street will be one of the show places of the city in a year or so.

In the wintertime comes the clanging of auto chains. Pa Newc noted that many motorists were relying on them today.

Ashes were scattered on hills on the improved highways of the county and district by employes of the State highway department, this morning, for the first time this winter season. Falling snow made the hills quite slippery in some instances, and the ashes were placed on them as a safety measure.

You saw them as Pa Newc did, no doubt. And you'll testify along with us that the city letter carriers and parcel post men were heavily laden with left-over holiday mail today. Their jammed packs looked as if Thanksgiving brought a holiday and a double-day's task besides.

A snowfall of the sort that fell today means nothing to railroad operations, trains continue without any delays or tieups. It's seldom local train service is interrupted because of it. Railroads here reported the local snowfall heavier than the fall at Ashtabula, O., and other lake points.

Pa Newc believes that residents living on the North Hill will feel more at ease when the new fire truck is placed on duty in the Second ward. It was provided for 11 months ago when the budget was made and is now awaiting inspection on a railroad siding here. The present Second ward truck will be kept on reserve.

Daily hunters are visiting Sheriff Johnston and Chief of Police Horner for the privilege of carrying a revolver with them on their hunting trip to the deer region. They use the revolver for signalling and also to dispatch deer provided the deer is brought down but not finished by the rifle.

Although it started snowing after midnight and a nice skiff lay on the street early this morning, it was not necessary for the New Castle Electric Street railway to worry about putting the snow-sweeper in operation. The fact remains, however, that the sweeper is in good shape and ready for operation, if a heavy snow falls.

in the light of all the information and legal advice available, and no other plan has been suggested that can take its place."

The governor's comment was interpreted in political circles here as indicating that all peace overtures thus far advanced have been found unworthy of consideration and that, with "no compromise" as their slogan, his supporters will fight against enactment of the "new" program.

Warning Conciliatory.

Despite such interpretations, the governor's warning was extremely conciliatory in its phrasing, especially as regarded the "home rule" plan of relief fund disbursement. He gave assurance that the larger cities of the state would share in relief in proportion to their needs. As for the funds derived through the proposed two-cent-per-gallon tax on gasoline, he said:

"One cent of the tax will be allocated for work relief among all of the counties of the state according to their population, and the other cent according to their unemployment needs."

The governor took cognizance of the reluctance of legislators to face their constituents after voting for increased taxes.

Realizes Situation.

"I realize," he said, "that it is hard for members of the general assembly to vote for additional taxes even when faced with an emergency. To do so, requires courage.

"To recommend additional taxes, as I have done, is unpleasant. But confronted with an imperative duty, I could not escape making my recommendations—and I am willing to answer for them to the people of the state."

erous minor traffic mishaps were reported. At Lock 5, on the Allegheny river, 1.3 inches of snow was reported this morning.

In Westmoreland county, highway authorities called out two snow plows to keep the Lincoln highway clear. In the mountains, near Ligonier, a three-inch snow fall was reported.

Hills Are Ashed

At New Castle, a three-inch fall was reported today with snow still falling this forenoon. Throughout Lawrence and Beaver counties, state highway crews sprinkled cinders and ashes on the highways anticipating a freeze tonight.

Flying conditions were so bad, the weather bureau at Bettis Field reported, that no ships were attempting the flight over the Allegheny Mountains in either direction.

Johnstown reported a one-inch snow fall this morning and other points in the mountains recorded from one to three inches of snow.

Possibility of a freeze tonight was forseen throughout the region, with weather bureau officials predicting a low temperature of 25 degrees during the day and prospects of the mercury sliding a bit father down tonight.

Eastern Pennsylvania also experienced its first real snowfall of the winter today. The flakes forecast for Thanksgiving day, were a bit late in coming, the first falling in Philadelphia at 6 a. m. They melted as they fell, but continued falling through the forenoon gradually increasing in intensity toward the noon hour. The skies were heavily overcast.

Lowering temperatures in Central Pennsylvania heralded the advent of winter. Early today the storm swept eastward over the Alleghenies, shrouding practically the entire country between the Alleghenies and the Delaware river in a mantle of snow. A brisk, cutting wind accompanied the snowfall at Harrisburg.

Bank is Destroyed.

Officials of the Hopewell National bank, which was burned to the ground, together with the postoffice, the Huntingdon & Broadtop railroad station, two hotels and virtually every store in the town, rallied volunteers to carry securities and valuable documents from the bank vault. A detail of state troopers hurried from Bedford and today stood guard over the ruined bank.

It was estimated today that about a fourth of the total loss is covered by insurance. Many residents and business men, it was said, were unable to keep up insurance payments because mines of the district, furnishing work to a majority of residents have long been idle.

Relief is Started.

Officials of the Bedford Red Cross chapter hurried here and made arrangements to shelter, temporarily at least, those rendered homeless by the blaze. Foodstuffs and blankets were being distributed today to the homeless while officials carried on arrangements for caring for them.

The blaze broke out early in the morning when the entire town was asleep, fire officials said, and spread rapidly because of the preponderance of frame buildings. It was brought under control only after the combined fire forces of a dozen towns had fought it relentlessly for more than four hours.

Deaths of the Day

Charles C. Straley.

Charles C. Straley, aged 71, former well known resident of this city, and a retired farmer, died Thursday, November 26, 1931, at 7:30 a. m. at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Roberta Bowie, Tippecanoe Road, Youngstown, O., following an illness of two weeks.

Mr. Straley was a resident of New Castle for twenty years, during which time he was widely known and held in high esteem in a wide circle of friends. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Straley and with the exception of the time he resided in New Castle, resided in the Struthers and Lowellville district adjacent to Youngstown following the vocation of farming the greater part of his life until his retirement a few years ago. He was a member of the Presbyterian church.

His wife, Mrs. Flora Straley preceded him in death in 1916. He leaves three daughters, Mrs. Della Wixon of Struthers, O., Mrs. Gertrude Kimmel of Struthers, O., and Mrs. Roberta Bowie at whose home he died, also two brothers, George Straley of Struthers, O., and Fred Straley of Koppel, Pa., eight grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The body has been removed to the Davidson Funeral Home in Struthers, O., where friends may view it tonight from 7 to 9 p. m. Funeral services will be held at the Davidson Funeral Home Saturday, November 28, 1931 at 2:30 p. m. Interment will be made in the Lowellville Cemetery.

NATION EXPERIENCING HEADACHE AS RESULT OF FINANCIAL SPREE

speaker of the day, Dr. E. Clyde Xander, president of Thiel College, who is well known to New Castle audiences.

Dr. Xander Speaks

Dr. Xander said "A meeting of this kind is a challenge to the people to speak their thanks in the face of a dilemma we have never had before."

"Whither Shall We Go and What shall we do in a time like this, when the harvests have been plentiful and the land is flowing with milk and honey, and yet withall we have a time of perplexities and trouble? The hand of God is before us in the plentiful harvest, yet in this midst of plenty there is a lack and upon this fact I shall found the facts of my address, What Men Live By."

Dr. Xander then went on to state that "Man Can Not Live by Bread Alone" and so often in welfare work the spiritual side of aiding man is lost in ministering to the material needs, although this is most essential.

"Men live by Work, play, love and worship" he stated. Jesus recognized the need of physical nurture, but also stressed the spiritual fulfilling. "In prosperity lies great danger; a prolonged financial spree has given us a headache, that can only be cured by the hand of Christ, who says "I am the Bread of Life" and if through the complexities and perplexities of life, if we keep our love of God all troubles will end."

"We Need Bread, yes," concluded Dr. Xander, "but it is only the means to an end, that of looking upon Jesus as the bread of life."

PASTOR AND WIFE GIVEN FAREWELL

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Morris street, was the scene of a merry gathering Tuesday evening, although the event had a touch of sadness with it as Marian and Ronald Anderson were giving a farewell party for Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Scripture.

The young people of the Hoover Heights Tabernacle were the guests and the evening was enjoyably spent with games and music, with a period of prayer and singing as the closing features.

The Scriptures were presented with a number of packages before the evening was over and upon opening them found lovely gifts as tokens of esteem and appreciation of the work done for the young people of the congregation throughout the past five years.

Refreshments were served by the host and hostess.

The Scripture family will leave Saturday for Titusville, where Rev. Scripture has accepted a pastorate.

B. And A. Club

The B. and A. Club members were guests Wednesday evening of Miss Peg Calhoun on Arlington avenue. Cards formed the main pastime, 500 being selected, and the prize for honors went to Eunice Woodcock. Following play, a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. A novel feature was the unique china and silver service which came from Scotland, that was used.

The guests were later favored with a group of piano selections given by Mrs. William Merich. Plans for the next meeting are being formulated, and further announcement will be made later.

Farewell Party.

Madeline Duckworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Duckworth, Tempalina avenue, entertained a group of girls in her home Tuesday from 7 to 9 p. m. as a farewell courtesy to George Scripture, who with his parents will leave Friday for Titusville to live.

Games and music kept the little folks busy for an hour or more and refreshments of a nature pleasing to little folks was served.

George was presented with many lovely gifts as parting tokens from his little friends.

Marriage Announced

Mr .and Mrs. J. H. Frey of Eberhart, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Frey and August Males, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. August Males of 310 Vogeley avenue, Butler, which took place October 22, 1930, at New Castle. The Rev. H. G. Woodrow, retired minister of the First Baptist church, officiated.

SUMNER-MURPHY NUPTIALS THURSDAY

A pretty wedding and one of interest to many here, occurred on Thursday, November 25, when Miss Geraldine J. Sumner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Sumner of Pearson street, became the bride of Troy Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy, who reside on the Wampum road.

The ceremony was performed at 3:30 o'clock in the parsonage of the Highland United Presbyterian church with the Dr. C. J. Williamson, pastor, officiating with the ring ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a gown of Romanian and cricket-green crepe made on the fashions now decreed, with accessories to match. She wore a shoulder corsage of tea roses. Miss Thelma Nagle of Ellwood City, who was chosen as her attendant, was stunning in a gown of pale blue crepe with matching accessories, and her shoulder bouquet was made up of pink roses. Little Sara Irene Sumner, sister of the bride, who acted as flower girl, wore a dainty frock of pale green crepe with shoulder bouquet and accessories to harmonize.

Walter Sumner, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Following the reading of the nuptials, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the brides parents. Covers marked for thirty guests, including a brother of the groom and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy of Beaver Falls, his grandmother, Mrs. Anna Larman of Oil City, and Dr. A. L. Swartzwelder of Cleveland, O. The dining room table was beautifully decorated with fall flowers, the center being adorned with a large wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Sumner, Mrs. Etta Stewart and Mrs. Henry Sumner served.

The bride is a graduate of the local Senior high school, and the groom received his diploma at the Franklin high school, Franklin, Pa. Both Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are affiliated with The Castle hotel here.

The couple left later in the day for an extended motor trip to Erie and many places of interest, and upon their return will be at home to their friends at 120 North Mill street.

Yoho Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Yoho, Garfield avenue, were hosts to their children and grandchildren Thursday at a delicious six o'clock turkey dinner.

The guests were all from Aliquippa and covers were arranged for twelve at a table suggestive of the holiday in centerpiece and appointments.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS MEMBERS ARE FETED

Seventy men of the Men's Bible class of the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church met Wednesday evening in the basement of the church to enjoy a dinner, half of them as guests and half as hosts. It was the payoff of a membership contest staged in the class with the losers banquetting the winners.

The losing side men prepared the dinner and served it, under the direction of Ernest L. Stitzinger, the retiring president of the class and even the winners had to admit that the meal was well cooked and well served.

Following the dinner, Rev. S. L. Maxwell, pastor of the church and Rev. Clifford S. Joshua of the Croton M. E. church spoke.

PHI PI PHI BANQUET AT FIELD CLUB HOUSE

An enjoyable social gathering of young people marked a bay scene at the Field Club house on Wednesday evening, when the Nu Chapter of the Phi Pi Phi Fraternity and friends assembled for their annual banquet and dance event.

All attired in formal dress, made a spectacular scene against the beautiful background expressing the Autumnal season. At 7 o'clock all were ushered into the diningroom where they were served a sumptuous menu at the large tables appropriately arranged for the occasion. Following, a period of dancing to an excellent program of popular dance tunes was in order from 8:30 to 12:30 o'clock. Forty couple participated at this event.

Officers of this organization includes David Finley, president; John McClure, vice-president; Herbert Smith, secretary; Frank Douds, treasurer.

J. G. A. MEMBERS PLAN PARTY EVENT

The regular meeting of the J. G. A. Club was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Clara Ricer on Neshannock boulevard. Tables of 500 formed the main diversion, and the success awards were won by Mrs. Geraldine Porter and Mrs. Anna Edwards. At a late hour, the hostess served a very delicious lunch, the appointments being suggestive of the Thanksgiving season.

In two weeks the club will entertain at the home of Mrs. Corabelle Allen on Katherine street. This event will be in the form of a birthday party honoring Mrs. S. M. Porter and many plans are being made in observance of the anniversary.

STAG PARTY AT FIELD CLUB HOUSE MONDAY

The men members of the New Castle Field Club house have another stag party event in store for them, which will take place on Monday evening, November 30 at the club house. The host on this date will be R. E. Larry.

Cards and indoor golf will be pastimes, and at the close of the entertainment period, lunch will be served.

T. E. K. Club

The T. E. K. Club members enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Edwin Turasky on Pennsylvania avenue Wednesday. Tables of 500 formed the main diversion with prizes going to Mrs. Raymond Hawk and Mrs. Herman Braatz. Later, lunch was served.

During the business session, names were drawn for the exchange of Christmas gifts, and plans were formulated for a tureen dinner to be held in the near future. The date will be given later.

In two weeks Mrs. Carl Frazier of Hamilton street will entertain in her home.

LOCALLY KNOWN GIRL TO WED SHARON MAN

Many New Castle residents will learn with extreme interest of the announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Virginia Wayne Sheppard, only child of the late Wayne Kennedy Sheppard and Mrs. Sheppard who reside at 1506 Lynn street, Parkersburg, West Virginia, and Donald Cullen Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bennett, of Sharon, Pa., and Houston, Texas, which was made known at a bridge-breakfast given on a recent morning by Mrs. Sheppard and Miss Virginia at Lakeview Inn, Parkersburg. The marriage will be an event of February.

The interesting news of the betrothal and impending marriage was cleverly revealed on Cupid heart shaped place cards. Nile green and jonquil yellow tones were carried out to the 'nth degree in the menu and table appointments.

Miss Sheppard, one of Parkersburg loveliest young women, graduated from Parkerburg High school, and will be graduated from Marietta College in the February class of '32. She has been especially prominent in campus activities while at the college, in dramatic, literary and sorority circles. The bride-elect is a member of the Chi Omega sorority, the French Club and was active in the Player's Club during her first three years on the campus, a member of the Student Council during '29 and '30; secretary to the Junior class and wrote the prize play in the college contest conducted in 1930.

Mr. Bennett who is also well known here, was graduated from Marietta College in June of this year, and was outstanding in campus and fraternity activities. During his senior year, he was elected to Phi Beta Kappas, and was president of the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity in his senior year. As a junior he was president of his class and was a member of the student Council in '31; art editor of the Mariettana in '28 and associate editor of the anual '30. He too, was a member of the Players' Club.

The wedding will be an event of early February and will take place at Parkersburg. The couple will reside in Houston, Texas, where Mr. Bennett is connected with the Sales Department of the Magnolia Oil Company. Both are well known in this vicinity.

FAMILY DINNER AT W. E. FERVER HOME

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ferver on the New Wilmington road was the scene of a happy gathering on Thursday when they entertained members of the family at a Thanksgiving dinner.

A delicious menu was served at noon at a table beautifully decorated in tones approprite to the season. The center was adorned with a huge bouquet of flowers taken from the Ferver gardens, which is indeed worthy of comment at this time of the year. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Rentz, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rentz and sons Richard and Fred, and the host and hostess.

A period of informal diversion occupied the leisure hours that followed.

Guests At Dinner

A delightful social event that occurred on Thanksgiving Day was that held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Porter Sherwood, of Perkins Woods, Warren, O., when they entertained at a dinner party. The menu was served at a suitable hour at a large table beautifully decorated with Thanksgiving decorations. Following the feature, the hours were spent informally.

Among the guests who participated included Mr. and Mrs. Scott B. Hamilton, Edwin Moore Hamilton of New Castle, and the Misses Esther and Betty Jane Hamilton of Youngstown, Ohio .

Family Dinner Gathering.

Home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Conway of 204 Englewood avenue was the scene of the annual family dinner gathering on Thursday evening. After dinner the hours were spent in a social manner. Attending the event were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Conway of New Wilmington, Prof. and Mrs. L. H. Conway and son Markham of Sewickley, Prof. Roy F. TRYING TO REACH THE LUSITANIA

SIMON LAKE is a brilliant inventor, who built the first submarine to operate successfully in the open sea. Whether his device to reach the Lusitania, so long under water, will succeed is perhaps dubious. His long tube and working chamber will be under great pressure.

The Lusitania was not "a treasure ship," and Mr. Lake can not hope to recover much more than interesting relics of the disaster. Even these may be unwelcome as reminders of an act which shocked the whole world and which both the survivors and the friends of the lost would doubtless be glad to forget.

AIRMINDED CAPITAL

No American industry, unless it may be the radio, has had such large sums of capital made available to it so early in its commercial development as has aviation.

The difficulties which the pioneers in the automobile industry had in raising such amounts as $5,000 indicates the truth of this statement. An airplane company almost without tangible prospects has a better chance to attract capital now than the most promising automobile manufacturer had in 1909.

Most surprising, to many, is the knowledge that the investors of today have more confidence in the future of aeronautics than capitalists 20 years ago had in the money-making possibilities of automobile manufacturing. The northeastern part of the United States allowed the automobile industry to drift West because Eastern bankers and investors preferred railroad and street car stocks and bonds.

Powerful interests have allied themselves with aviation to an extent which they had not done in the automobile industry 10 years after its success appeared certain. And the small investor is showing more confidence.

But it is with some justification that a New York investment house warns its clients against too heavy investment in airplane factories. With virtually unlimited capital available there is the possibility of overexpansion.

GOING AFTER BUSINESS

Business on the lavish scale of 1928 is probably not to be had, except in isolated cases, but it is equally true that business generally is worse than conditions warrant. There is more business to be had if it is gone after in the right way.

Here and there merchants and factories are discovering this for themselves and are profiting thereby. There is the case of the large department store in the national capital which decided that if the people were adequately informed of the unusual value on every counter this year due to depression prices they would take advantage of them instead of hoarding their savings. It therefore increased its newspaper advertising and the first week did 30 per cent more business in dollars and cents, which represents an even greater increase by volume, and sold 44 per cent more items. A 10 per cent increase in its personnel was necessitated by the rush of business.

At the end of the week the vice president and general merchandise manager of the concern stated publicly:

"Newspaper advertising has again proved that it is the most powerful and effective advertising medium. The results are direct and instantaneous."

Business doesn't owe it to the newspapers to do more advertising. It owes it to itself, to its employes, to the buying public which constantly hungers for bargains, and to industry and labor the world over. If stores do not sell, factories cannot produce and labor cannot work. When the sales force of the nation falls down the wheels stop turning. It is not a small responsibility that rests upon the shoulders of the country's distribution system, of which every store, salesman and advertisement are a part.

SUCCESS OF RELIEF DRIVES IN NATION

Reports from many sections of the United States indicate that the people of the nation are doing remarkably well in support of the relief drives for the unemployed, and for the pledging of funds to fill the community chests of the various localities. Returns from 101 of these campaigns so far show that 99 per cent of the total of $31,602,425 has already been raised with the expectation of going over the top in a short time.

In almost every case there has been a notable increase over the amounts obtained in previous welfare movements. New York, for instance, started out to obtain a fund of $12,000,000, but it has passed that by a million or more and now intends to fix its goal at $18,000,000.

To say that this is gratifying does not adequately express the sense of satisfaction it must give every normal-minded citizen. It emphasizes two facts. The first of these is the big-heartedness of the people. They have never failed to send food and succor to the afflicted people of other lands. Indeed, they have sometimes been criticised for not extending the same degree of generosity to their own. But the past week or so has amply demonstrated that, once they understand the seriousness of the situation, they can be as prompt and kind to those at home as they have been to the suffering abroad. Until now many have not fully appreciated the extent of the need here.

The second fact is that President Hoover's belief in the certainty of voluntary aid for the unemployed has been vindicated. He has been a vigorous opponent of the dole, not because he has not wanted to help those who are in dire need of help, but because he knows that the system is wrong. Even at best it is inadequate for the purpose in view in this country, just as it has been a dismal failure in Europe. It defeats itself. The notion that unlimited sums of money can be poured out of the public treasury for distribution among the unemployed is a fallacy. The money must first be given to the government in the form of taxes, and endless increases in taxes spell ruin.

The true remedy, as the president's plan has demonstrated, is voluntary help for the needy in this crisis. None should be permitted to go hungry or without shelter. The vast sums collected indicate that they will not.

The permanent cure must come in the opportunity to work, which it is hoped is not far in the offing.

It's a Bargain
GoYour Way
But Let Me Go Mine

By MARSHALL MASLIN

Go your way; do as you please. Chase butterflies, pick up autumn leaves, raise dahlias.

Marry for money, spoil your children, get your feet wet.

Eat what you please, have a stomach ache, moan and fuss.

Stand on the corner and make speeches, practice high diving, drink too much.

Wear a hair shirt, burn the candle at both ends, get green eyes from jealousy.

Spend too much money; save every dime; bite your finger nails.

Go your own way, do as you please, see if I care!

But—

Pay for the privileges you take, let me go my way, too—let ME do as I please.

Let me—

Wear a red necktie, worship my own God, take soup instead of salad.

Like cocker spaniels more than wire hairs, prefer bridge to chess and yell—if I want—at football games.

Cut the lawn on Sunday, stay up until midnight, read frivolous books.

Put my feet on the desk, give dimes to beggars on streets, forget to have my shoes shined.

Be bored, be mean, be melancholy.

Risk my neck, smoke too much, pick my own friends.

Miss street cars, read the funny papers, be a pessimist about life and an optimist about people.

Let's trade, unsight-unseen.

Go your way, I'll go mine. You do as you please, I'll do as I please. I'll not nag at you, don't You nag at me. I won't talk about you if you won't talk about me. . . . . And thus we'll be the best of friends, forever and forever and forever. And I'll keep my promise if you'll keep yours.

THE CARVER.

I sing of the old-fashioned carver who gracefully wielded his blade,
Who sat in his place with a grin on his face and was deaf to the comment we made;
He had learned every joint of a chicken, a turkey, a partridge, or goose,
And he sat there or stood as a gentleman should as he cleverly whittled them loose.
Oh, there was an artist worth watching, a master performer was he;
But the age has grown smart, and that glorious art is a joy that no longer we see.

My grandfather taught to my father the knack of dissecting a hen,
He made him recite where was dark meat and light again and again and again.
He trained him to sharpen his knife on the steel,
And to flourish his blade in the air,
He shouted: "Alack! You do nothing but hack, when you ought to be slicing with care."
'Twas a gentleman's boast as he sat at a roast that he skillfully handled his knife;
And until a boy knew where the second joint grew he wasn't thought ready for life.

Now they whittle the meat in the kitchen, and bring it piled up on a plate;
Be it roast beef or ham, or a turkey or lamb, it is passed in the ready-carved state.
And nobody jests with the carver,
and nobody praises his art;
There are grown men today who unblushingly say they can't get a drum stick apart.
But something has gone from the dinner, however expensive its cost,
That we viewed with delight in the age taken flight, ere the fine art of carving was lost.

The old father who is living in your home—he may be a bit cranky and unreasonable at times.

But you cannot realize the pains and aches which he experiences.

As a parent it is natural for him to think that he knows more than the child whom he has reared.

And he should be forgiven for some of the things to which he objects or for his support of persons whose ideas are at variance with yours.

You should be big enough to overlook his frailties and the changes which old age has wrought.

At his age you will be as annoying or worse, probably.

You think that by the time you are old you will have acquired enough money to pay for your care; your parent at your age undoubtedly thought he would.

Perhaps that old father thought too little of his future and too much about yours to save the money he should have saved to be able to be independent.

Giving you advantages he really could not afford so that you would not have to provide for yourself at an early age and would be fitted to earn more than would be possible without your education, has perhaps made him destitute.

Dad did all that for you and that ought to speak louder than his querulous disposition.

Assailants Of Farm Board Face Defenders In Debate

Charges Of Competition With Private Business And Market Mistakes Are Met By Indorsement Of Co-operative Efforts And Service To Farmers

Attacks on the Federal Farm Board by members of both political parties have aroused the country to a general debate on the value of this government agency. Special attention has been given to the statement by Representative Beck of Pennsylvania that the board is dead. Attackers charge that it enters into competition with private business and that its market operations failed to achieve their objective, while defense of the board is based on its support of co-operatives and its other forms of aid to farmers.

"Amendment of the act creating the board may be the desire of a majority of the farmers," says the ST. PAUL PIONEER PRESS, "but it is amendment by the friends and not the enemies of government aid to agriculture that is desired." That paper advises that the farmers "should be careful to see that the changes that are made are for the better and not for the worse" and that "if agriculture has any cirticism of the Farm Marketing Act, it is because that law is too limited in its scope."

"If the board is abolished," asks the ROCHESTER TIMES-UNION, "what will take its place?" The Times-Union adds: "It is well to remember that the Farm Board was a substitute for schemes which would have cost the Treasury still more. Efforts by the board to sustain wheat and cotton prices proved a costly failure. But no agency set up to defend the interests of primary producers could be expected to make much of a showing during a period when raw material prices throughout the world fell to levels representing the lowest buying power ever recorded for such products."

"It has been the main task of the board," according to the LEXINGTON LEADER, "to promote co-operation. In cotton, more than 2,000,000 bales were handled in 1930 by co-operatives. In the same way, 196,000,000 bushels of grain were marketed or held, 130,000,000 pounds of wool and mohair, and 8,000,000 head of livestock. A study of 192 associations of importance shows that since the board began its work, there has been an increase of membership of 33 percent, and an increase of nearly 29 per cent in volume of goods handled. But the further fact is that whereas the board has loaned $300,000,000 to co-operatives, these organizations have repaid in a short time $170,000,000 of the loans. The board's revolving fund is revolving. Its educational work is going forward successfully."

"While the wheat market continued to go down despite great purchases of the Farm Board last year," says the ROANOKE WORLD NEWS "the decline seems to have been halted." The World-News offers the general conclusions: "The extent of the Farm Board's holdings and the degree to which it has become involved in the grain situation constitutes a warning that care should be exercised in reaching a decision as to its future, if any. If the point has been reached where dissolution of the board will not be felt unfavorably by agriculture, then it should be mustered out of service. If there is still possibility that it can be of service, Congress ought to examine the facts very carefully before it acts. Much damage might be done by an ill-advised move at this critical moment."

Pointing out that Mr. Beck was delivering a "funeral oration" before representatives of the grain trade, and that "ever since the creation of the Farm Board the dealers in grain have been hostile to it," the WASHINGTON EVENING STAR suggests: "The situation which has existed in this country and in the world practically since the establishment of the board has played into the hands of the trade. And where is the brilliant success of the private industries in this country during the period of the depression? There was no bureaucracy there, but the failures and cost to the American people have been so many times greater than the cost of the Federal Farm Board that the opponents of the Farm Board might at least give those failures slight consideration. The same law of supply and demand that Mr. Beck extols has worked in the case of industry just as inexorably as it has in the case of the Farm Board stabilization operations."

Declaring that "it would be unfortunate for the American farmer, were Congressman Beck's announcement of the death of the Farm Board to be proved true," the PHILADELPHIA EVENING BUL-

Jobless City Resident Pictured As Worse Off Than Unemployed Farmer

Human Misery Seen By Governor Roosevelt Of New York As Reaching Its Peak In Urban Centers

By FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT
Governor of New York

I think we are all beginning to realize that some new factor is needed in our economic life as a nation. We are beginning to find that mere drifting is not enough. We are finding that the changing play of economic forces as we know them inevitably leads us to hardships that take the rank of great disasters, which affect all of us and bear most severely on those who have worked faithfully and unquestionly—people who have depended on the leadership of the powerful to find them continuous work.

We are generally agreed today that things are somehow out of balance. It doesn't need any deep thinking to come to that conclusion. The bald facts are that the natural means for providing plenty of sustenance for all are still abundant. We have the resources of soil and other forms of productivity; we have the knowledge and we have plenty of trained labor. Of most commodities necessary to life and comfortable living we seem even to have a surplus. The producers can't sell all the goods they would like to make, nor can they buy the goods they want to buy.

What is this lack of balance and how is it caused? The question is one that must occupy every thoughtful mind today. It stands as a challenge to our ability to think.

It is a familiar fact to all of us that this nation has changed in a relatively few years from one predominantly agricultural to one predominantly industrial. A century ago 75 per cent of the population lived on farms and 25 per cent in the cities.

Today the figures are almost exactly reserved. There is an explanation, of course. Farm industry has been converted into factory industry.

But any suggestion that the pendulum has swung too far brings a prompt rejoiner. It is pointed out that our farmers now produce more crops than they can sell to advantage, that farmers only a few weeks ago were being compelled to let go of their wheat for less than the actual money they had put into its production, and that the situation was the same with respect to all other crops.

That is true enough, but it is equally true that the same thing could be said for many forms of manufacturing, and it is also true that the carpenter and the stone mason and the structural iron worker and the machinist—all manufacturers in the broad sense—are frequently unable to sell their labor and their skill, which are their only products, for any price at all.

Let us look one fact in the face. I do not want anyone to think that I am picturing American agriculture as being prosperous—the reverse is true. Nevertheless, when we read statistics that 6,000,000 or 8,000,000 or 10,000,000 Americans are out of work do we stop to consider where they are out of work? It is undoubtedly true that the overwhelming majority of these millions of unemployed are living in the cities of the country.

What does unemployment in the city mean. It means that the whole family is not only out of work and out of cash, but is also out of food and is threatened with losing a roof over their heads.

That brings about as serious a picture as we can well imagine—a picture of human misery.

Many Cattle Die To Prevent Spread Of Tuberculosis

Pennsylvania Spends One And Three-Quarter Millions In Indemnity

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27.—A total of 23,549 Pennsylvania cattle were slaughter last fiscal year in an attempt to eradicate bovine tuberculosis in that state.

According to the annual report just made public by the department of agriculture, $1,726,149.27 was paid as indemnity to owners of tubercular cattle in Pennsylvania which were slaughtered during the fiscal year ended June 30, last. Of this amount, $951,118.05 came from the state treasury and the remaining $775,031.21 from the vaults of the federal government.

For the cattle slaughtered, owners in the state received an average of $98.37 per head as compensation. This yas $35.73 less than the actual appraised value of the stock. Of this compensation, an average of $40.89 came from the state, $32.91 from the federal government and $25.07 from salvage.

More cattle were slaughtered in Pennsylvania in an attempt to eradicate bovine tuberculosis than in any other state except New York. Both New York and Massachusetts spent more money on this activity during the year.

LETIN argues that "it was created with purposes important for the greater prosperity of the farmer, and it has functioned in fulfillment of those purposes, and deserves to be continued to those same ends." The Bulletin adds that "it was instructed and equipped for the encouragement and promotion of efficient co-operative marketing, for the checking of inefficient and wasteful practices and methods of distribution, for the gathering and distribution of essential information as to crop markets and conditions of supply and demand." Quoting C. B. Denman of the board as seeing "signs that something is being accomplished, in the desperate efforts that are being put forth by the enemies of co-operative marketing to destroy the Marketing Act and the Farm Board," the PORT HURON TIMES-HERALD concludes: "It does, indeed, give reason to suspect that it may be accomplishing more than perhaps its friends realize."

"Whether reason will prevail when Congress comes to cinsideration of the farm-relief question," according to the CHATTANOOGA TIMES, "remains to be seen. The matter is now in the hands of bureaucrats, who as a class are notorious for the tenacity with which they hold on to their jobs and seek to magnify their importance, and of politicians in Congress, who are equally notorious for refusal to abandon an idea with which they may conjure votes. Chairman Stone, predicting that efforts to abolish the board will not get very far, says he is 'not bothered by the quibbling of peanut brains.' There is no reason why he should be. It is the country which has reason to be bothered by their quibbling, even to become alarmed over it."

"Unless we quit flirting with socialism many perils are ahead," contends the ROCK ISLAND ARGUS, advising that "the business men of the country should voice their demands to both of the major political parties in no uncertain terms" and that "the general position taken by Congressman Beck seems to be unassailable." The WALL STREET JOURNAL comments: "The function of government is to assure the citizen of his personal safety, to promote justice and, so far as possible, give every person an equal opportunity. This never can be where the government enters into competition with the individual; once let individualism be destroyed and the road is opened to socialism or perhaps something worse."

Viewing the board as a source of jobs, the YAKIMA MORNING HERALD advises that it "will probably remain an adjunct of the Federal government for many years, although everything it does could be done better by the Department of Agriculture." The BALTIMORE EVENING SUN concludes: "Everyone knows that breaking the grip of a dead man is difficult in the extreme, if not impossible. The Farm Board, as a factor in farm relief, is dead; but that is no guarantee that its clutch on the Treasury will be easily, or soon, removed."

MISSING GERMAN STAGE STAR SOUGHT

NEW YORK, Nov. 27—Through diplomatic channels the New York police have been asked to institute a search for Miss Eleanor von Masrow, 30, a blond German stage and movie actress who has been missing here since October 26.

Miss von Masrow, a niece of Walter Rempeck, German embassy attache at Madrid, came to New York with her parents a year ago in an effort to help them retrieve a lost fortune. The parents returned to Germany three months ago but Miss von Masrow remained in New York.

The actress at times used the name of Schiller. She was said to have been in financial difficulties.

State College Gives Farm And Garden Hints

Farm and garden hints which are of value to gardeners and farmers are contained in the following bulletin issued by the School of Agriculture, Pennsylvania State College.

Prepare Early Garden—During the autmn months a small strip of garden can be plowed or spaded for the first early spring planting of spinach, onion sets, lettuce and other cool crops. Turn under manure if available and leave in the rough over winter. Rake the seedbed smooth before planting.

Feed Cows Profitably—Careful feeding of dairy cows is especially important when milk prices are low. The ration should be carefully balanced and fed strictly in accordance with the amount of milk produced. Carelessness in feeding increases milk production costs.

Use Efficient Saws—Many improperly fitted cross-cut saws hang in farm sheds. With a few tools and a litle information, the average farmer may change a poor saw into a highly useful and efficient tool. Your county agent, upon request, can arrange a demonstration on saw fitting.

Sows Need Protection—Bred sows should be well protected during the winter and provided with clean, dry, comfortable sleeping quarters. They should, however, be forced to take sufficient daily exercise outdoors in the sunshine to keep them healthy.

Clean Soiled Eggs—To clean soiled eggs use a knife or steel wool to remove the greater part of the dirt. Then wipe the eggs clean with a damp cloth. Washed eggs do not keep well, say State College poultry specialists.

Fall-Plow Corn Land—During the past two dry years, better yields of corn have been obtained on fall-plowed soil than on spring-plowed land. Even in wet seasons, fall plowing gives as good or slightly better yields than later spring plowing. Plowing as much land as possible in the fall saves a great deal of work in the spring.

Miss Altha Akens of New Castle spent the week end with Frances Ongley of Harlansburg.

HUNTING LICENSES REACH NEW RECORD

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27.—More hunting licenses will be sold this year than ever before, according to officials of the Game Commission, after comparing data on reports issued by the Department of Revenue from returns of the county treasurers. According to the latest information from the Department of Revenue, 32,000 special issue licenses have been furnished county treasurers. There were 520,000 licenses printed especially for the sixty-seven counties, making a grand total of 552,000 supplied to date. Commission officials feel that many more men are hunting this year than before, simply to secure food.

Hidden Title Story For Upper Grades Given

Children of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, competed in a hidden title contest at the Free Public Library during Book Week, 100 titles having been cleverly concealed in a story written by Miss Alice Joyce.

The winner of the contest was able to figure out 87 of the hidden titles. How many can you find?

TITLE CONTEST STORY

That year at Lincoln High making the nine was for left guard Gilbert a long defense. For the honor of the school he, as the substitute, played that football game in a crimson sweater. After the touchdown a little waif maid named Emmy Lou, who was cheer leader on the sidelines, gave him a prairie rose in bloom as a talisman. Garram, the hunter, who had just returned from voyages and travels into the land of the long night presented him with a painted arrow that Jim Davis had won for the fleet.

Polly Oliver's problem was to invite the goodly company to Dandelion Cottage that evening for a Thanksgiving dinner. Alison Blair, a daughter of the rich, was the first of the seventeen guests to arrive. Martin Johnson, the lion hunter, who sat next to her, told about his adventures in the African jungle with the jungle babies. He also told her how one day after they had been lost in the jungle from six to sixteen hours they noticed some cranes flying south who were couriers of the clouds. This gave them courage and putting their best foot forward they journeyed on until they met some forest runners carrying the fast mail. With these courageous companions they left the jungle beasts and men and returned home by one of the cruisers of the air.

Martin Hyde, the duke's messenger with merry lips, told how he had been kidnapped in Lawrence's bodyguard and had freed himself from the clutch of the Corsican and how he had traveled with the Indians in the Rockies under Soldier Rigdale, the white leader, until he had escaped around the world in eighty days. He also explained to the Boy Scout on his right how they carried the mail in the adventurous days of old, in the days when the buccaneers and pirates of our coast wielded swords on the sea and who were like men of iron as they captured Gustango gold and pearls of fortune. How this stolen treasure was buried in cave, mound and lake dwellings on a mysterious island was another of the twice-told tales worth telling.

Toby Tyler, who sat across the table, was explaining the other side of the circus to a member of the league of the signet ring. Lorna Doone, who knew all about pets and how pets for pleasure and profit might be kept, didn't know a thing about the circus menagerie, so she listened with the other wide awake girls to these mystery tales of wild folk.

Ghond, the hunter, having just returned from hunting hidden treasure in the Andes among the buried cities during the midsummer, was filled with tales of the cowboy and stories of the great West. He told how just at sun up one smoky day, in the grey light of morning he noticed a gleam in the north which predicted clearing weather, and digging into his mount with spurs of gold, he followed the trail of the Spanish horse into the magic forest. What should he find but a little house in the woods and looking through magic casements he found the children of the moor eating one of Mother Carey's chickens garnished with carrots. The table was decorated with red caps and lillies and roses of the winds from Master Simon's garden. They invited him in and talked about the jolly good times at school.

Suddenly just as Ghond had finished his story, the wonder clock struck twelve and the guests departed into the cool midwinter air.

PATIENTS HARVEST LARGE FARM CROP

SELINSGROVE, Pa., Nov. 27—Patients at the State Colony for Epileptics here harvested large crops this season, according to the trustees' report.

A 35-acre garden plot produced sufficient vegetables to provide the colony with food through the summer. This plot is now being prepared for strong vegetables such as beets, carrots, cabbages, and potatoes for winter use.

In addition the patients and employes harvested 12,000 bushels of corn; 3,300 bushels of potatoes; 2,200 bushels of wheat; and 600 bushels of apples.

The Wabash river is the largest north tributary of the Ohio river. Its length is approximately 410 miles.

Services Tonight At Temple Israel

Rabbi Grossfield To Speak At Service At Eight O'clock

Temple Israel, Highland and Moody Avenues, will have its next regular service on Friday evening, November 27 at 8 p. m., Rabbi Avery Jonah Grossfield officiating. The topic of the sermon will be: "The Revitalization of Chanukah as a Home Festival. It is possible?" The Saturday morning service will take place at 10 a. m., followed by the children's Hebrew class at 11 a. m.

Religious School classes will meet as usual on Sunday morning at 10 a. m.; there will be no suspension of classes because of the Thanksgiving week-end.

The flowers that will adorn the pulpit at this week's services have been offered by Mrs. Abe Gonick in honor of her husband's birthday and in celebration of his recovery from his recent illness.

After the services the members and friends will enjoy an hour of fellowship in the vestry rooms of the Temple, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Perelman.

Young Girl Would Marry For $10,000 To Aid Her Parents

Mary E. Clowes, Blonde And Attractive, Asks For Money To Aid Destitute Parents

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 27.—Seeking desperately to aid her father and her crippled mother, now destitute on a farm near Columbus, O., Mary E. Clowes, 21, of Monongahela, has offered herself in marriage to any "respectable man" who will give her $10,000 to aid her family.

The girl, who went to New Eagle to live with an aunt several weeks ago, announced her marriage offer here.

"I will honor and respect any man who will help me in my desire to keep my parents in a little comfort in their own little home during their declining years," she said. "I will marry any respectable man who will give me $10,000 to aid my parents."

Miss Clowes related her brothers were killed, one in a mine accident four years ago, the other in a fire three years ago, leaving her as the sole support of her parents.

The girl, blonde and attractive, admits the burden is too much and seeks a husband to aid her.

SECOND-HAND SUITCASE YIELDS TOURIST $60

TRINIDAD, Colo., Nov. 27.—Calvin Heeks from Wisconsin, a tourist, bought a second hand suitcase for $2, and enriched himself $60 thereby.

Heeks drove through Pueblo, Colo., he revealed here, and bought the suitcase at a second-hand store, paying his $2.

There were odds and ends of a battered experience in the old suitcase. Heeks was throwing away the debris, when he came upon a wallet.

In the wallet were three worn $20 bills.

Nominations Occur At P. H. C. Meeting

Meeting Of New Castle Circle Is Well Attended On Wednesday Night

The session held by New Castle Circle, No. 5, Protected Home Circle on Wednesday night was well attended and one of the most important of the year, when the annual nomination of officers featured the meeting. Owing to the illness of President Nora McCann, Vice President Harry Mehlman presided throughout the meeting and many items of interest to the members were disposed of at this time.

Excellent reports of the committees were given. One of the finest being that of the Inner Circle ceremonial held on November 18th, given by the general chairman, Deputy Walter Schroeder, who received a rising vote of thanks with his committees for the splendid success of the event. It is a matter of regret that the business associations in the local circle are now closed. Deputy Schroeder having transferred to a larger field at Scranton, Pa.

Previous to the regular session on Wednesday night the Junior Circle had called a little farewell gathering for Brother Schroeder and his faithful wife and expressed their regret of their leaving with pretty reminders of their pleasant hours together. Later Deputy Schroeder feelingly expressed his appreciation of the friendships made both in and out of the circle by his wife and himself while here and leaves us with the highest regard of the membership as expressed by the different members present.

State Deputy M. M. Henlein of Erie, then presented Albert H. Liston, sent to No. 5, from the supreme office at Sharon and Brother Liston received the hand of fellowship as our new deputy. His work will also include Baird Circle of Ellwood City and Pulaski.

Brother Liston is a young man of pleasing personality and comes to the local circle highly recommended by the supreme body at Sharon and with the co-operation of No. 5, we look forward to excellent progress from our brother.

It was the pleasure of the circle at their previous meeting to have with them District Deputy S. R. Creider of Erie, who with Deputy Henlein and others gave us snappy addresses. On Wednesday evening, December 2nd, the fifth card party of the series will be held with the officers of the circle as hosts. This will be the last party of the present series. The election of officers will be held on the next regular meeting night of the circle.

LILLIE B. JONES,
Secretary.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

When Parent Tells Lies For Children

School Principal Deplores Mother's Aid To Hookey Player

By GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education, Cleveland College, Western Reserve University.

Recently a junior high school principal told me that he was appalled by the large number of parents who deliberately lie for their children. His remark prompted me to ask other principals.

"Oh, yes, that is common,' was the typical response; "and you would be surprised at the kind of parent who does so," was sometimes added.

The boy or girl plays hookey, slips out of the school building, goes automobile riding, to a talkie or on some other escapade. The student, if discovered to have been absent, is reported to the home. The child takes the matter up with the mother who, over the telephone, assures the principal that the child was ill at home, had gone shopping with her, or was down town lunching with the father. Next morning the mother reduces the fabricated alibi to writing, and the child carries it to school.

This principals' school is in a community highly favored economically. Near it are a number of fine churches. The principal noted that some of the most frequent offenders among mothers were church workers, civic leaders, and those of the kind whose pictures sometimes appear on the society page of the newspaper. Since such persons are looked up to in their community, their practice of the kind condemned is the most serious.

Of course it is easy to see why mothers of this sort have great temptations to lie for their children, since to have their children punished at school for truancy would readily be known by their neighbors and associates, with consequent embarrassment. To cover up the matter by a little lie appeals to these mothers, apparently, as the practical way out of the difficulty. Whereas we might expect lying for children by parents to be more common to the less privileged social level, we must remember that some parents are glad to have the school punish their children who do wrong there, and do not on that account feel that such punishment is a social stigma.

Think of what it must mean to the morals of the child to have his parents lie for his escape from justice. He had openly violated a rule of the school. He lied to escape the known and deserved penalty. His mother, in order to protect her social pride, had lied with him. She was the major party to his misdemeanor. She did not disapprove his truancy. She approved it. She even helped him escape the consequences. She did not disapprove his lying to escape just penalty. She lied herself deliberately to deceive the school principal in order to shield the child from being apprehended as a liar.

No doubt she frequently had punished that same child in earlier years to prevent in him the habit of falsifying. How is she ever going to set herself right with that child? What more could she have done to train him in crime? It will be relatively easy for him to violate school rules again, for he knows his mother will defend him. He naturally assumes that if he should get into trouble that would lead him to the juvenile court, there would his mother be to lie him out. She had taught him that lying cleverly is a handy means of escaping temporary trouble. All he needs to do is to acquire more skill, he thinks, at escaping apprehension when he violates law and order anywhere and, if caught, to be more apt at improvising skilful lies to clear himself.

Let us parents pray fervently for courage enough never to lie for our children.

Special Delivery To Canada Carries Double U. S. Rate

Postal Patrons Are Warned That Twenty Cents In Stamps Needed On Letters

(By ARTHUR C. WIMER, Special Washington Correspondent of The New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27.—Postal patrons of New Castle sending mail into Canada are warned by instructions just sent to their local postmaster that the fee on special delivery letters to the Dominion is twice that of domestic special handling.

According to W. Irving Glover, second assistant postmaster-general, a large number of letters are being sent to Canada from the United States, marked special delivery and containing only ten cents special postage. By postal regulations, any article intended for special delivery in any foreign country must contain twenty cents additional postage, just double the amount required in this country.

Mr. Glover has warned all postmasters to mark articles intended for special handling and bearing insufficient postage, "Not in special-delivery mail," and dispatch to destination as ordinary mail whenever such articles can not be returned to the sender for the deficiency in fee without seriously delaying the dispatch thereof.

Two In District Granted Patents

Butler And Beaver Falls Men Are Given Rights On Invention

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27.—Lars H. Vold of Butler and William Broad of Beaver Falls have just been granted patent rights on inventions of their own design, the United States Patent Office announces.

Mr. Vold has received the rights on a defrosting machanism for a refrigerating system. He applied for the patent May 10, 1928, and waited more than three years for recognition.

The rights on a vibrator have been awarded to Mr. Broad. Broad applied for the rights on his invention April 17, 1928, and has assigned them to Harry F. McLain of Pittsburgh.

Soldier's Heart On Wrong Side

(International News Service)

BERLIN, Nov. 27—Germany's capital harbors an anatomical curiosity in Gustav Heinrich, 44 year old worker, popularly called 'Inverted Gustav," because Nature placed his heart on the right side of his chest.

Despite this anomaly Gustav is going strong. He drinks a few quarts of beer daily, smokes a lot and has perfectly healthy children. His only trouble is that he lost his job and has not been employed for the last half year.

Gustav was born in East Prussia, but his abnormal constitution was not discovered until he was examined by a school physican. From that time on be became the sensation of his village.

He saw service in an infantry regiment throughout the war in France and Belgium. He was never wounded. From time to time famous professors of the Berlin University clinic invite him to lectures for demonstration purposes.

If Your Ears Ring With Head Noises

If you have catarrhal deafness or head noises go to New Castle Drug, Eckerd's or your druggist and get 1 oz. of Parmint (double strength) and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little, and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has catarrhal deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

"I'll stand by it!"

"I'll stand by tobacco . . . in good times, in hard times . . . all kind of times . . . it helps a whole lot!

"I GREW up with tobacco. Mostly I smoke cigarettes now — but I've smoked plenty of cigars, and pipes, too. And I never got anything but good from tobacco in any form—pipe, cigar, or cigarette—and that goes for every smoker I ever heard about.

"Why, I remember as a boy, way back, how the old folks in the fall used to pick and cure tobacco from a little patch they'd raised, and save out the best for their own smoking. And my father fought all through the war, and lived to be ninety.

"He'd certainly appreciate what we get today, though. Just think about these CHESTERFIELDS of mine—fine tobaccos from all over the world, and cured and blended just so; you couldn't get anything purer or milder. Cleanest factories you ever saw, too—never a hand touching the cigarettes . . . everything up to date.

"A big improvement over the old ways . . . reckon that's why I like CHESTERFIELDS so much. I notice most of my friends get a lot of pleasure out of them, too.*

"But what I started out to say was, you can always depend on tobacco, no matter how things are going. Probably there was never anything in the world that meant so much to so many people, and cost so little, as tobacco—whatever way they smoke it.

"Yes, sir—I'll stand up for tobacco as long as I can strike a match!"

*NOTE. In the sections where tobacco grows and where people know tobacco, Chesterfield is usually the largest-selling cigarette.

(SANITARY NAPKIN)
Never Irritates
Ends Periodical Chafing and Discomfort

VELDOWN is a revolutionary advance in sanitary napkins. Instead of mere layers of crepe paper it has a rayon cellulose filler—downy and gentle as fluffed silk. A filler that prevents all chafing, discomfort and packing, with no harsh edges to harden and irritate.

And yet it is 3 to 5 times more absorbent than ordinary pads—safe and effective hours longer. Veldown comfort costs no more than ordinary sanitary pads. At any drug or department store—ask for Veldown.

WHAT NEW CASTLE SCHOOLS ARE DOING

Know Your Schools Series—7

Under the general caption of "Know Your School Series," a series of bulletins has been prepared by various teachers of the New Castle schools dealing with the activities of the schools.

Each bulletin deals with some particular phase of school life in this city and the entire series can be classed as a full description of the school curriculum here.

EDUCATION IN CITIZENSHIP

By CLYDE C. GREEN

"Education in Citizenship' has a different meaning than "education for citizenship". The school must be the laboratory of citizenship and not the lecture room. The child and the foreigner receive their ideals of American citizenship from example more than from precept.

Training in citizenship is not a white-washing or daubing on process. It involves a development or growth from within. There is a sharp distinction between civic ideas and ideas about civics. Any idea is useless to the individual until it becomes a living force in his character, and controls his conduct.

The doctrine of Aristotle that "virtue is practice and habit" is much more in harmony with modern educational theory them the crude statement of Socrates that "virtue is knowledge". Civic morality, like speech, must be acquired by using it.

Up to the time a child enters school he lives largely in a world of dreams and fancies. His personal likings play a large part in the organization of life as he knows it. The school gives him his first acquaintance with organized society and his dependence upon it. He now must learn to recognize the facts of life rather than its fancies. His daily duties begin at nine o'clock in the morning and not just when he feels like arising from his downy pillow. When he begins to adjust himself to some of the facts of life he learns his first important civic lesson—that of OBEDIENCE to legally constituted authority. But a mere sense of submission is not desirable. As a child begins to introduce order into his chaotic thoughts and actions, he begins to feel a NEW AND HIGHER SENSE OF FREEDOM—which is his second important lesson.

This feeling of freedom very soon begins to express itself in a desire to exercise his initiative in relation to organized society. It is at this point that the so-called extra-curricular activities become a necessary part of the educational scheme; and any legitimate activity which emphasizes the group idea, the responsibility of the individual to the group, and the dependence of the group upon the individual is valuable as a tarining in citizenship. In the entire organization of the school a wholesome normal social situation must be created; and precept is of little avail unless the highest ideals of citizenship are examplified in the administration of the affairs of the school in every department from the school room to the Board of Education.

There are certain types of extro-curricular activities in which all schools should engage and which are indispensable to the process of training in citizenship.

The Junior Red Cross and kindred organizations create a spirit of love and service for humanity. The social consciousness which is so essential in useful citizenship can hardly be acquired by the pupil if he is merely exposed to the ordinary schoolroom procedure and is denied participation in the read activities of community life under the guidance of the school. He should know early in his career as a pupil that he is also "a citizen of the United States and the state in which he resides" by the very definition of the United States Constitution, and as a citizen he should learn to function while school guidance is available.

Thrift clubs, health clubs, music clubs, garden clubs, the Girl Reserves, the Hi-Y, etc., all contribute to training in citizenship.

Student participation in student government (not student self government) is founded upon the proposition that EDUCATION IS LIFE. It is quite as reasonable as student participation in other phases of school life.

No one can successfully deny the benefits of athletic contests in the process of training in citizenship if athletics are properly administered; but there must not be a confusion of relative values in school life and care must be taken that the fundamental virtues of good citizenship must never be sacrificed in order that a team may win from a rival school.

In addition to the practical education in citizenship which results from the child's school experiences, full provision is made in the course of study for citizenship training in all grades.

The mere outline of the course in citizenship for the elementary schools covers one hundred typewritten pages. Specific objectives have been set up for each grade and methods of instruction are clearly indicated. In the junior high schools all pupils are required to take courses in community, vocational, and general civics. In the senior high schools courses are offered in problems of democracy, history and other phases of social studies—all designed to develop the right concepts of citizenship.

The great difficulty which the schools encounter in their effort to impart lessons of civic righteousness to the children is the counteracting influence of civic unrighteousness with which children come in contact in every community. Again we state that example is more powerful than precept.

Sometimes an attempt is made to hold the schools responsible for the bad manners of children, their lack of courtesy, and their carelessness with respect to the cleanliness and beauty of the community. In these matters the schools are doing their part well, but there are homes and there are citizens whose influence tends to nullify whatever good influence the schools may exert.

On the other hand there are many organizations and individuals who labor zealously to support the schools in their efforts to make better citizens.

NEEDLE THREADER WORKS BLINDFOLDED

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 27—Hail the new Champion Needle Threader of America! In fact hail him a couple of times for he has doubled his predecessor's record, and added the time question to his feat.

George E. Gowing, of River Rouge threaded a needle 64 times and set a record by doing it in less than two minutes.

"I have been threading needles for a pastime ever since I can remember" said Gowing. "A few years practice and there is nothing to it. I can even do it behind my back."

A No. 5 Crowley needle is the size used by Gowing to thread. Using a No. 10 size, the new champion inserts 11 strands so tightly they can hardly be pulled out.

The jailing of Capone has changed things in Chicago. There are many new faces on the beer trucks.

HIT-RUN DEATH DRIVER IS SOUGHT

SHARON, Pa., Nov. 27.—Peter Golubich, 52, of Charleston, died in Buhl Hospital from injuries received last night when he was struck by a "hit-skip" driver on the Sharon-Mercer road near Hermitage.

Golubich, who until recently resided in Farrell, was walking along the highway, presumably en route to that city. He was found in a ditch by the roadside by Gordon Miller, Spruce avenue, who was on his way home from Mercer. He brought the injured man to the hospital, where an examination disclosed a crushed head.

COMPANION'S GUN INJURES HUNTER

CANONSBURG, Nov. 27.—Valention Patrina, 19, of McGovern, is in Canonsburg General Hospital with a gunshot wound in the leg, caused by the accident discharge of a shotgun carried by his hunting companion, John Ballentyne of Washington.

How to Make Children EAT!
A Simple Way to Correct Poor Appetite

Don't Force Your Children to Eat!
The girl or boy who has no appetite has stasis—which means the child is sluggish. But cathartics have caused more constipation than they ever cured! The "California treatment" is best—just pure syrup of figs. Try this for a few days, then see how eagerly your youngster will eat.
How to Conquer Sluggishness
Stimulate the colon and that child with a finicky appetite will devour everything set before him. Here's the simple treatment that does more for babies or older children than all the diets, fad foods, or tonics.
Nature has provided the only "medicine" you'll need to stir a child's colon muscles into proper action. California syrup of figs. Pure, delicious, harmless. It acts on the lower colon—where the trouble is. It has no ill effects on the intestines.
Start Tonight
Begin tonight, with this marvelous "California treatment." Any druggist has California syrup of figs, all bottled with directions. Use enough the first time to cleanse the clogged colon of every bit of poison and hard waste. Then just a little twice a week until the child's appetite, color, weight and spirits tell you the stasis is gone. Whenever a cold or other upset clogs the system again, use this natural vegetable laxative instead of drastic drugs.
WARNING
There are dealers who practice substitution. Be sure to protect your child by looking for the name CALIFORNIA on the bottle.

Their last meeting of November was attended by a large number of the Mabel Wilson lodge members, auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. The gathering took place in Malta hall Thursday evening.

A committee, of which Mrs. R. C. Solomon is chairman, announced that final plans for the Christmas party which will be held December 10 had been made. The members were told what to bring and what would be furnshed by the committee. Election of officers will take place at that time also.

Mrs. Solomon's committee had met at her home on Edgewood avenue on Wednesday evening to make the plans.

Grand Auxiliary Plans Election

Election of officers will take place at the first December meeting of the Grand International auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, according to plans made at the Wednesday afternoon meeting this week.

The meeting Wednesday was well attended and aside from the plans for the next meeting, the regular routine lodge business was discussed.

PENNA-BO LODGE

Final arrangements for a Christmas party and installation of officers were made Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the Penna-Bo lodge to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen at Woodmen hall.

The party, at which time the officers elected a short time ago will be installed, will take place Wednesday, December 9. A committee was appointed to make plans for the meeting.

FROM NEAR NILES

Mrs. Charles Wilson and son of near Niles, O., were visitors with friends in seventh ward and Highland avenue on Thursday, Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Wilson will be remembered as Lucile Perry, a former resident of this county.

ST. MARGARET'S

The final card party until the first of the year took place Wednesday evening at Lyceum hall, corner of Second and Clayton streets.

Winners of high scores in the games were as follows: Patrick Ronan, Sr., 500; Mrs. George Duncan, euchre; and Jessie Calvert, Bingo.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Block and son, of Erie, Pa., and Miss Ceora Downing, of Coraopolis, spent Thanksgiving Day and the week-end with Mrs. Block's and Miss Downing's parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Downing, of Newell avenue.

PLANES FLY OVER

Two biplanes were seen flying over the southern part of seventh ward on Wednesday afternoon. The airplanes were high in the sky and were headed from a south-easterly direction toward Youngstown.

Bartholomew Freed On Second Charge In Venango Court

Former Well Known New Castle Druggist Acquitted Of Failing To Stop At Accident

Park W. Bartholomew, former New Castle druggist and now of Franklin, Pa., was acquitted in the Venango County court Wednesday on a charge of failing to stop at the scene of an accident, growing out of the fatality of Ellsworth Hetrick who was struck by the car driven by Bartholomew.

Bartholomew was earlier in the week acquitted in the Venango Court on a charge of involuntary manslaughter. He was assessed the costs of the second case. The costs in the first case were placed on the county. State Highway Patrolman Brown made the charges in both cases.

Westfield Church Unusual Service

Mrs. O. C. Crawford, Missionary From China Will Be Speaker In Evening

Rev. Ross M. Haverfield, pastor of Westfield Presbyterian church, announces that the Sunday services in his church will be of a most unusual and interesting nature.

At 11 o'clock the pastor will preach to the children of the congregation and all the boys and girls of the church and Sunday school will sit in a body and have an important part in the worship. Sunday school will be at 12:15 p. m. with H. L. McCurley in charge.

In the evening at 8 o'clock Mrs. O. C. Crawford, a missionary on furlough from China, will be the guest speaker. She has had many unusual experiences in China and all missionary organizations of the church will be in attendance. She will exhibit many curios from China.

Special music will feature the service.

Kiddies Given Dinner At Trades Assembly Hall

Women's Union Label League And Salvation Army In Joint Event

One hundred boys and girls of the city, whose situation had been thoroughly investigated and who would have been without a Thanksgiving dinner, were the guests of the Women's Union Label League and the Salvation Army at Trades and Labor Hall at two o'clock Thanksgiving Day at a bounteous dinner provided through the efforts of these two organizations and the work of a large group of interested women.

The children were placed at two long tables, seating fifty each, with pink and white coverings and with feautiful flowers decorated by a local florist.

Rev. Harry Johnson of the Simpson M. E. church pronounced grace after which the group were fed until they wanted no more. The children were lined up and marched into the banquet hall to music furnished by the Simpson M. E. orchestra, in which were included Rev. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mollie Komarck, Margaret Campbell, Ruth Llewellyn, David Campbell Mansell Johnson, Buddy Johnson. The orchestra continued to furnish music during the entire affair.

Featuring the bounteous supply of food was a cake furnished by Alfred Higgins, a twelve year old boy, who had baked and prepared the cake for the occasion. Following the dinner, the children rendered many pretty chorus numbers. The ladies in charge of the dinner were greatly assisted in putting it on through the use of the dishes of the Central Presbyterian church, which were loaned for the occasion.

The group of ladies in charge of the affair were headed by Mrs. Elener Skunder, president of the Women's Union Label League and Mrs. V. Thomsen, wife of Ensign Thomsen, officer in charge of the Salvation Army. The ladies assisting included: Mrs. Lillie McElwain, Mrs. Ferd Seamans, Mrs. Mary McLaughlin, Mrs. Nora Vogan, Mrs. Martha Richardson, Mrs. Mary Pennington, Mrs. Leona Smyth, Mrs. Mary Matthews, Mrs. Ida Beebe, Mrs. Cora Burke, Mrs. Anna Murray, Mrs. Edith Ross, Mrs. Agnes Mescall, Mrs. Sue Flynn, Mrs. Christine Houk, and Mrs. Alda Byerley. A number of the members of the Trades and Labor Assembly also assisted the ladies.

Many Invited To Attend Big Meeting Sunday

Various Groups Of The Army Helpers Will Report This Evening

Everything points to a large attendance at the Sunday afternoon meeting in the interests of the Salvation Army. Indications are that there will be a capacity house present to hear Lieutenant Colonel C. B. Campbell, and the Western Pennsylavnia staff band of approximately forty pieces, made up of devout Salvationists and fine musicians, who donate their services for this purpose.

The Sunday meeting will be for the purpose of getting the public better acquainted with the Salvation Army and the possibilities of the work that could be done with a fully financed program.

The group of workers, will make a report this evening at the headquarters the Y. W. C. A. of the work accomplished so far.

Tuesday following the meeting in the Cathedral, there will be a meeting of a group of women representing the Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary and the Women's Union Label League, for the purpose of conducting an extensive canvass in the interest of the army. Every contirbutor will receive a shield sticker.

Collection taken up at the South Side Union Thanksgiving service held lats night in the Primitive Methodist Church was turned over to the Army this morning and amounted to $26.10.

Legion Of Honor Program Featured By "Y" Wrestlers

Good Entertainment Is Held In Connection With Meeting Wednesday Eve.

Members of the Legion of Honor were treated to a good program on Wednesday evening in connection with their semi-monthly meeting in the Cathedral.

After the business meeting, the members were treated to a wrestling exhibition by a group from the Y. M. C. A. under the supervision of Henry MacNicholas, physical director. Among the group were two state champions and one district champion.

Four four-minute exhibitions were staged by the members of the team in an inter-club exhibition match. Those in the group were: Nick George, Charles Christopher, Paul Alford, Eugene Cartwright, Earl Brooks, Vercetus Manus and Emerson Davis.

After the wrestling exhibition eats were served in the kitchen and the remainder of the evening was spent in informal pleasures.

The Legion of Honor has completed arrangements for an entertainment early in December, admission to which will be some staple article of food, which will be distributed to members of the organization in need. This entertainment will be for members and their families.

FARRELL GIRLS ARE KILLED IN CRASH

YOUNGSTOWN, O. Nov. 27—Miss Anna Dolata 20, of Farrell, Pa. was killed and Mrs. Bertha Dmochowici, 29, also of Farrell, was possibly fatally injured yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Dmochowici's husband, Walter, lost control of a sedan he was driving on the Lake Milton road near North Jackson. The car left the road and crashed into a telephone pole Miss Dolata was killed instantly. The driver and four children who were in the car escaped with very slight injuries.

CAR HITS TRUCK, TWO ARE INJURED

CORRY, Pa., Nov. 27.—Donald Conway, 35, and Marjorie Cox, 18, both of Union City, escaped death when Conway's light coupe crashed into the rear of a heavy truck trailer hauling tires from Akron to Philadelphia.

They were brought to Corry Hospital. Conway has a severe gash under his left eye and physicians said his vision may be impaired. Miss Cox has a possible fractured right arm and severe cuts on her left leg and knee. Walter J. Carson, Akron, was driving the truck.

Sparks From New Castle Motor Club

$40,000,000 SPENT BY CITIES AND COMMUNITIES FOR RECREATION PURPOSES

Pointing out that approximately $40,000,000 was spent by communities and cities for recreation purposes last year, Ralph W. Bolsinger, President of the New Castle Motor Club, declared today that the providing of adequate playplaces for children will do much to halt the toll of deaths and injuries on the streets and highways.

Mr. Bolsinger said the fact that 980 cities reported recreation facilities and programs in 1930, as compared with 945 in 1929, is evidence that the nation is more and more appreciating the importance of keeping youngsters off the streets.

"In the absence of adequate places to play," he added, "it is only natural for children to turn to the streets and sidewalks in front of the school or home.

"Free from the protective safeguards placed around them at home, children go confidently out to play, to ride down the hilly part of the street or the sloping driveway and out into the street. It is not unusual to find this true along the heavy arteries of travel.

"The duty of city authorities to protect these youngsters is as important as it is to guide the maze of traffic in the downtown streets." The A. A. A. executive continued:

"Streets in many sections of the city can be closed at certain hours for skating without interfering with traffic needs. When King Winter holds court, streets in hilly areas can be closed for the use of sleds and youngsters can coast to their heart's content in safety.

"Safety education in the schools has had a far-reaching effect in encouraging children not to play in the streets. The result has been to reduce accidents to youngsters of school age. It is only fair, however, that when they are taught to stay off the streets they should be provided with safe playplaces in the outdoors.

TOYS FOR HAPPINESS NOT ACCIDENTS

Santa Claus will soon arrive and flood the country with new bicycles, kiddie cars, skates and a thousand and one toys which the youngsters can use to satisfy their desire to find mobility. It is an impressive sight to see the parade of these boys and girls on the day after Christmas. But the obligation of parents does not cease when Kris Kringle goes up the chimney.

In their mad rush to show their Christmas toys and enjoy them to the utmost, the kiddies sometimes stray from the yard and sidewalk and into the arteries of vehicular travel. We are warned by the American Automobile Association that the first rush of enthusiasm leads to many accidents each year on the days immediately succeeding Christmas.

The wise parent should take advantage of the gathering around the Christmas tree to warn the youngsters of the safe way to use their new toys. They should be taught that the "curb" is the limit. Older children should be encouraged to keep an eye on the often heedless acts of the younger ones, and teach them the rudiments of safety.

Remember that failure to properly instruct the kiddies on the safe way to use the Yuletide toys may mar the entire Christmas holiday period for the family. It might also mar its hapiness for many years to come.

Secure your 1932 license tags now. Don't wait until the rush is on and risk not having your tags delayed.

If you have not received your license tag application and your address has been changed since your last registration, stop at the Motor Club Headquarters and secure a change of address form No. M-18 and forward the form to the Department immediately.

Use a little bit of caution and avoid fatalities. When bumpers meet it is too late to practice safety.

Most drivers overrate their ability to drive. Even "careful" drivers form habits that sometime result in mishaps.

Don't Go to Extremes To End Constipation

When bad breath, or a coated tongue, biliousness or headaches warn of constipation, don't take violent purgatives. There's no use when a candy Cascaret will stop the trouble in a jiffy; will cleanse your system pleasantly, and completely.

The relief you get so promptly from Cascarets is lasting. Cascarets are made from cascara, a substance which medical authorities agree actually strengthens the bowel muscles.

So Cascarets are a blessing to old folks with weakened bowels; to children; to anyone in need of establishing regular bowel habits. Ten cents a box—all drug stores.

ASSIGN DEPUTIES FOR SCOUT WORK

New Districts Apportioned To Leaders At Confab Of Leaders

The deputy commissioners of the Lawrence county council, north district, Boy Scouts of America, held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Dr. R. C. Lutz Tuesday night with a good attendance on hand, and several prospective men present. Commissioner Ralph Davis presided and reviewed the work done at the October meeting.

New plans were taken up and work now in progress was reviewed. Deputies have been asked to serve as follows (taking these troops and visiting them as possible, each deputy giving one night a week to the work): Mr. Raney, troops 1 and 10; Mr. McCoy, troops 15 and 17; Dr. McFate, troops 5 and 18; Mr. Davis, troops 6 and 13; Mr. Culliford, troops 3 and 37; Mr. Fox, troops 2 and 21; Mr. Tinstman visit troop 55; the executive, work with troop 4 in reorganization, etc.; Mr. McCulloch New Wilmington 1, New Bedford 1 and Bessemer 1. Troops organizing and getting ready for investiture will be given deputy supervision as they line up.

A general discussion of the duties of a deputy was held, and also the ways in which troops could help in the present economic stringency. Scouts may be used in several different ways which will give peculiar help to organizations already heading it up.

The proposition of the deputies using the small cabin at camp was also brought up, and this building will be used as such during the coming year, through council permission given at the last board meeting.

BOSTON IS SHOWN "MECHANICAL HEN"

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 27—Now that we have the mechanical man—along comes the mechanical hen.

The "mechanical egg-factory" an ingenious exhibit, has been demonstated to hundreds of persons on the concourse of the North Station. It was arranged by Dr. A. W. Gilbert, Commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture, and was designated to stress the health-giving qualities of eggs.

The operation of the "hen" is complete from the time grain goes through the bill to the finished egg product. The various stage of egg production are shown in detail until the time when the egg enters the "paint factory" where it is made ready to send out completed in either white or brown.

DISARMAMENT AN EFFECTIVE MEASURE

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 27—Charles Nagel, former secretary of commerce and labor, believe disarmament would be an effective gesture toward peace, but would not be an absolute guarantee against war.

Nagel made this assertion before the meeting of the International Relations Seminar conducted by the St. Louis Social Justice Commission.

"If two nations were only lightly armed," Nagel declared, "The result might be that it would take longer to end a conflict than if they were heavily armed and could bring destruction on one another.

"International peace hinges upon the crystallization of thought on the belief the World War was a conflict to end all warfares."

Racketeer Shot In Philadelphia

Two Companions Dump Wounded Man At Door Of Hospital And Flee

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—John J. Rogers, 29, said by police to be a small-time racketeer, was dumped at the feet of physicians in St. Luke's Children's Homeopathic hospital early today by two companions, who fled before they could be questioned. He was suffering from a bullet wound in the abdomen.

Efforts of police to learn the circumstances of the shooting were futile as Rogers maintained the customary silence of the denizens of the underworld. "Yeah, I know who shot me, but I'm not telling," he said.

Man bets on himself

So he's a good bet for others

MANY a man has failed to land the job he went after, just because he looked seedy. The Boss looked him over and probably figured that a man who'd let himself slump would let his job slide, too.

"That experience brought me up short," one of the wise ones declared afterwards. "That very day I started on a whole new scheme of living. Say, you'd never have known me for the same man six months later. I'm betting on myself now, all right. So is the outfit I'm working for.

"There are thousands of people in this condition. Half-hearted. Down on their luck. And don't quite know why. Yet, the answer is so simple. A slowed-up, sluggish system—an excess of poisons in the body.

"Regular treatments with Nujol start things functioning again as they should. Nujol not only keeps an excess of body poisons from forming (we all have them), but aids in their removal."

Start now to take Nujol regularly. Keep it up for the next three months. At the end of that time we'd be willing to bet your stock has gone way up. That you're worth more to the people you work for—and to yourself.

Nujol can't possibly upset you. For it contains absolutely no medicine or drugs. Nujol was perfected by the Nujol Laboratories, 2 Park Avenue, New York. Sold in sealed packages only. Get a bottle today.

GARDNER

Rev. Jno. Kellner, Rev. Olive Kellner, and Albert Hahn of New Castle, and Jack Wimer, of Gardner were dinner guests of friends of Gardner on Sunday.

Last Sunday Willard H. Kennedy of Gardner brought two fair sized and perfectly ripe strawberries and reported that there are many more on his vines. Ripe strawberries just now are certainly a novelty and Gardner's oldest resident never saw the like before.

Deacon S. G. Hazen of Ellwood City was out hunting last Friday and very kindly remembered the family of his former pastor at Gardner, with some of the spoils of his prowess.

Mrs. C. O. Brest of Gardner is still ailing with heart trouble, but has had such cheering news from her sister at Cresson that she feels like rejoicing. Mrs. Mook has gained twenty three pounds in 3 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Moore of New Castle and children Betty, Ruthie and Doris, visited the family of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Moore of Gardner last Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Main, her sister Mrs. Sadie Wahn and a niece Mrs. Cyrus Main, came to Gardner on Tuesday to see a member of the Providence Baptist church, and they brought a beautiful quilt for the folks at Gardner to see, the blocks were yellow tulips and it was put together with white and the lining was white and the quilting was exquisite. It was done by the women of the Mission Circle of the Providence Baptist church. The scallops al around the edge were bound by hand in green binding and this was the handiwork of Mrs. Frank Main. The intervals between the blocks were done in beautiful feather stitching. The whole affair is a genuine work of art and is a silent witness to the patience and skill of many tireless workers.

Mrs. William Jones, of R. D. 7 had the misfortune to fall and break her ankle bone.

Mrs. Charles McGary and her mother, Mrs. Harriet Ferree of Gardner entertained the Community Circle last Thursday night. There was a good attendance and a very pleasant time was greatly enjoyed by all. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. McGary and Mrs. Ferree assisted by Mrs. Robison and Mrs. Frazier.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morrow of Gardner entertained the following guests last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. William Vogan and children Marian Jean, Billie and Muriel, of New Castle, also Mrs. Ralph Shoener and her twin sons James and John Shoener of Orwigsburg, Pa.

Last Sunday was the third anniversary of the dedication of Gardner chapel, and a fitting program was carried out. A. H. Robb is superintendent of the Sunday school, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Robb, of Butler, showed their interest in his work by coming to be present at the exercises of the morning. After the lesson of the day with Rev. H. G. Woodrow teaching the adult class, there was a song by Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Hay, Miss Ada Walker and Mr. Robb. Mrs. Norman Walker, gave a reading, Birthday Greetings To a Friend. Miss Malinda Walkers' class sang "Come to the Church in the Wildwood." Mrs. John Morrow read a lengthy history of Gardner chapel which should be preserved for generations yet to come. Mr. Woodrow gave a very excellent talk and led in prayer. The quartet sang as their closing number "We Will Follow Jesus" and the benediction was pronounced.

The Shenango P. T. A. will hold their regular meeting next Monday night.

Last Saturday Miss Florence Schumaker, her mother and Albert Hahn went to New Wilmington, to see Morrow Scott, who has been ill for nine weeks and now has pneumonia, but it thought to be improving.

LOCAL SPORTSMEN DEPART FOR WOODS

Three New Castle post office men will spend the entire first week of the deer and bear hunting season, which opens next Tuesday, at their newly-built hunting lodge in Forest county, near Marionville. They are to go to the district over the week end. Those who will camp together will be D. N. Reno, Thornton Allen and Francis M. Adams, this city and Aubrey Reno, Wampum and J. C. Hays, Polk, Pa.

The Bowels Get Real Help from this Doctor's Prescription

TRAIN your bowels to be regular; to move at the same time every day; to be so thorough that they get rid of all the waste. Syrup Pepsin—a doctor's prescription—will help you do this. When you take this compound of laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other valuable ingredients, you are helping the bowels to help themselves.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the sensible thing to take whenever you are headachy, bilious, half-sick from constipation. When you have no appetite, and a bad taste or bad breath shows you're full of poison.

Dr. Caldwell studied bowel troubles for 47 years. His prescription always works, quickly, thoroughly; can never do you any harm. It just cleans you out and sweetens the whole digestive tract. It gives those over-worked bowels the help they need.

Take some Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin today, and see how fine you feel tomorrow—and for days to come. Give it to the kiddies when they're sickly or feverish; they'll like the taste! Your druggist has big bottles of it, all ready for use.

HONEY USES INCREASE WITH CHEAPER PRODUCT

Honey is a pure natural sweet which contains more than 17 ingredients.

Because of its scarcity, honey originally was considered a luxury and therefore was used sparingly. With the development of new methods of beekeeping, production has been cheapened and the product can be purchased by those of moderate means. The advent of cheap honey, especially in the extracted form, has resulted in new uses for it.

Commonly, honey is used as a spread on bread for children. For this purpose the naturally crystallized honey is ideally adapted. Honey is excellent for hot toast, pancakes and waffles. Extracted honey is unsurpassed for sweetening prepared breakfast cereals, fresh peaches and pumpkin pie. Some people prefer to sweeten grapefruit with honey. When honey is reduced with one-third water it can be used in certain flavors of ice cream with pleasing results.

Honey also can be used for baking purposes since it tends to keep the baked products in which it is used moist and fresh for a longer period of time. Fruit cakes and baked beans are outstanding examples of baked products which are decidedly benefited by the use of honey.

Among the unusual ways in which honey is used are face creams, cough syrups, for burns, vinegar and in making candy. It also is used to relieve fatigue quickly, especially when taken with warm water and milk. It is absorbed immediately by the blood as no digestive changes are necessary.

IMPROVE FARM WOODS TO INCREASE VALUE

Treated with reasonable care the farm woodlot is a perpetual sort of thing. Constant replacement takes place among the trees composing the the woodlot. As the old trees drop out or yield their ripe products of wood and timber, young ones spring up to take their places.

First of all, keep out fire. This destructive demon robs the woods of living trees and destroys their power of regeneration.

Next, keep out the livestock. Grazing animals will thrive better in a good open pasture where meat and milk-making grasses grow. Then, too, cattle get little nourishment in the woods and eventually will eliminate natural regeneration of the trees.

Good woodland management also directs natural thinning by using the ax to eliminate those trees which do not have the inherent characteristics necessary for the making of valuable trees. The aim is to produce 100 trees to the acre which will be ideal in shape, quality and kind for either use or sale. The favored trees are those which are straight, tall, sound and of the kind growing the fastest and being the most valuable for use.

As the farm woodland trees grow in size, the improvement operations repeated every 10 years gradually eliminate all but the choicest ones. To balance the improvement work in an average farm woodlot so that it can be fitted into the farm work schedule without interfering with other duties, many owners thin one-tenth of their wooded acreage each winter. The sale of wood and timber pays for the work.

PENN STATE TO HAVE HORTICULTURE WEEK

Horticulture Week will be held at the Pennsylvania State college December 9 to 11.

Nutrition is the central theme of this short course offered for the eighth year by the college department of horticulture. Three half-day sessions will be devoted to the science of nutrition, members of the departments of agronomy and botany cooperating.

For the practical applications of the science those attending will separate into three groups. Special programs have been arranged for vegetable gardeners, fruit growers and ornamental horticulturists.

PEAS VARY WITH SOIL AND CLIMATE CHANGES

Demonstrations showing the best varieties and strains of garden peas to plant were conducted this year by the Forest, Centre and Berks county agricultural extension associations. The varieties selected were those that do not require brush or wire to support the vines, yet produce well, bear large pods and mature fairly early.

Great variation was shown in the performance of the same variety when grown under different soil and climatic conditions. Also, certain strains of the same variety varied as much as altogether different varieties.

Blue Bantam or Hundredfold, which is similar to Laxtonian, Peter Pan, Pioneer and Laxton's Progress met the requirements quite well for both home and market gardeners. Probably certain strains of the Gem varieties mature slightly earlier, but these varieties have longer and more attractive pods, yield well and are of good quality.

Laxton's Superb is relatively new but highly prized by market gardeners.

Some Thomas Laxton strains grow slightly tall for the market gardener. For yield, size and attractiveness of pods and quality it is a highly desirable second early variety.

Dwarf Telephone usually has somewhat shorter vines and the pods are long, pointed and attractive.

Telephone, Champion of England and Alderman are leaders among the tall growing varieties that mature late. Stratagem and Potlatch are dwarf, late mature varieties.

IMPORTED SEEDS COLORED

Color, dominant in the commercial world today, is used for the protection of the American farmer in determining the origin of imported alfalfa seed, says the United States Department of Agriculture.

Federal law requires coloring of all imported alfalfa seed. This coloring enables the purchaser to determine at a glance the origin of the seed. Alfalfa seed from South America must be stained 10 per cent orange-red. That from Africa and Turkestan must be stained 10 per cent red, and that from Canada 1 per cent irridescent violet. All other imported seed must be stained 1 per cent green.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS MAY GET TRAINING

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27—Special courses for the preparation of future administrative officers in the public schools of Pennsylvania will be offered in certain accredited institutions in conformity with a program recently adopted by the Pennsylvania State Council of Education according to an announcement by Dr. James N. Rule.

The Legislature of 1931 approved an act which established minimum academic and professional requirements for superintendents of schools and at the same time, gives the State Council of Education the authority to prescribe minimum requirements for supervising principals.

Science is said to be seeking "polar weather secrets." They would come in right handy, too, in the middle of the next summer season. —The Savannah Morning News.

Five Killed In Auto Accidents Near Pittsburgh

Five Meet Death In Series Of Auto Accidents Over Thanksgiving In District

TWO WOMEN—THREE MEN ARE VICTIMS

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 27—Five persons were killed and scores injured in automobile accidents in the Pittsburgh district over crisp Thanksgiving holiday, it was reported today.

Joseph Campbell, 40, of Liberty, Jeannette Crissman, 16 of Saw Mill Run boulevard and Mrs. Mary Baurlein, of Millvalle, were fatally injured in automobile accidents.

Joseph Campbell, a negro coal miner, of Liberty was killed instantly when struck by a car while walking along the road. Walter Ignatius, of Pittsburgh, was killed instantly in a collision of two automobiles.

Milk Stations May Be Closed

Secretary Of Health Department Says State May Be Forced To Halt Service

HARRISBURG Nov. 27—"We face the closing of the five milk stations in the mining regions of Pennsylvania within three weeks, unless we can secure aditional funds" said Dr. Theodore B. Appel, Secretary of Health today in renewing an urgent appeal for money to keep the work going.

"For over two months now the field nurses of the Department of Health have been supplying a pint of milk daily to nearly 900 children at Avella, Bernice, Kinlock, Renton and Coverdale. These under-nourished children could not possibly secure this needed sustenance in any other way.

"Funds have been supplied by contributions, and we have no other means of paying for the milk so distributed. I again renew my appeal to the good people of the commonwealth for funds to keep up this work so imperatively needed.

"The cost of the milk is now running about $60 per day. There is no other expense. Every dollar given will be invested in milk ,and every bottle given out will go to a needy child approved by a state nurse.

"Checks will be received and acknowledged by the Department of Health, in whose hands the Governor has placed the work of free milk distribution. As we approach the holiday season, we voice an appeal on the behalf of the kiddies who can not speak for themselves, but so sorely need this little of milk each day."

Completes Work In Rural District

Mercer County Medical Director Ends Health Examinations Of Children

MERCER, Pa., Nov. 27.—Dr. M. B. Magoffin of Mercer, county medical director, has just completed the physical examination of 730 school children in Mercer, Liberty and Findley townships. The doctor is one of five physicians responsible for the examination of county school children.

Out of this number of children he found only 89 without some defect. A total of 454 had decayed teeth, 176 defective eyes, 103 tonsils, 217 were underweight, 156 had deformities, 48 had defective hearing.

In his report the doctor announces the reduction in deformities. Less round shoulders and flat feet. He attributes the change to the institution in the schools of physical instruction. Bad tonsils and eyes are also being reduced. This is due to co-operation of parents with the health authorities.

Despite the depression the doctor does not find undernourished children. The reduced percentage of underweight children is due to the serving of milk in the schools, he writes.

Not so many cases of goiter. The defects are more prevalent in the rural schools than in Mercer. Twice as many children in the town without defects as in the country.

MUST FILE ACCOUNT

Candidates balloted on at the election of November 3 are warned by the county officials that they have 30 days after this date of election in which to file their expense accounts. But 25 have filed so far.

COMPLETE RECORDS

The county auditors have completed the records of Recorder William G. Jones and gone to the office of Clerk of Courts Belle Emery. The report of the office of Recorder Jones showed all accounts paid and the office in splendid condition.

The audit is of the 1930 accounts.

LONELY HONEYMOON FOR THIS COUPLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27—Harry Walker, radio operator for the United States department of commerce, naturally wanted to be alone, with his bride on his honeymoon, but got more than he bargained for.

He was assigned to the lonely station at Donner Summit, highest in California, 7,300 feet above sea level, where his cabin is wired down to prevent it being swept away by the Sierra winds.

His bride was Miss Clara Dorwaldt, of Alameda and they were married in Reno.

Gas Rate Hearing Date Is Announced

Patrons Of Union Light And Heat Company To Present Complaint

GROVE CITY, Nov. 27.—December 9, at 9:30 a. m., is announced today by Attorney M. B. Klinesmith as the date on which the postponed hearing of the Union Heat and Light Company case will be heard.

Five boroughs, including Grove City, and 12 townships are asking through the Public Service Commission a reduction in gas rates and abolition of the service charge of this company. The meeting will be held at the City-County building, Pittsburg. Roy Husseiman of Cleveland, evaluation engineer, will be present at his hearing and testify as to the value of the property of the Union Heat and Light.

City council is behind the suit here. Their activity is the result of 1109 gas consumers signing a petition asking that this cost be reduced.

ARRANGES PROGRAM

Miss Dorothy Etter in charge of the home economic work in Mercer county for the state and federal extension bureaus will have charge of the program here December 16th that is being arranged for the women's auxiliary of the Accredited Cattle and Sales Association.

The meeting is to be in the old Presbyterian church.

BERRY LEAVES

Coach Chas. Berry leaves here shortly for his home in Phillipsburg. Berry has just closed his 1931 football season at the college. He will leave with the Boston Red Sox in February for spring training prefacing the opening of the baseball season. Berry rates first string catcher with the team; here he rates a sentiment of good will that is general with everyone who knows him.

Lewistown Man Is Severely Wounded

Shoemaker Returns Home To Find Wife With Another Man—Stages Shooting And Cutting

(International News Service)

LEWISTOWN, Pa., Nov. 27—Joseph Cuteri, 21 formerly of Coraopolis, was in a critical condition here early today suffering from knife and bullet wounds he received in an encounter with Frank Ross, 33, local shoemaker.

Ross surrendered to police and claimed the trouble started when he returned to his home after a brief absence and found Cuteri with his wife.

A bullet lodged near Cuteri's heart and he was slashed with a knife about the face, neck and left arm.

ILLNESS IS FATAL TO WEST'S WIFE

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Sturgiss West, 48, wife of J. T. West, former principal of Morgantown high school, died last night.

Mrs. West became seriously ill during the trial of her husband here last week. She had been in poor health for a number of years. She was born in Morgantown and had lived in this city practically her entire life, having married Prof. West shortly after he graduated from West Virginia University, about 1905. Three children, in addition to her husband, survive.

Two Suspects In Cleveland Nabbed

Detective Squad Captures Two Suspects In Surprise Raid

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, Nov. 27.—Averting a pitched gun battle by capturing two suspected gunmen while they slept, police today raided a reputed gang arsenal here and confiscated a large number of sawed-off shotguns, pistols, machine guns and other weapons and ammunition.

Three automobiles loaded with heavily-armed police and detectives were dispatched to raid the room, located in an East Side residence, on a tip. Acting quickly, the raiders crept into the room where the two lay sleeping and grappled with them before they could reach for their guns, concealed under their beds.

Both of the suspects arrested have long criminal records, police said. They were described as being 20 and 24 years of age respectively. After a grilling by detectives, one of them allegedly confessed to four robberies police said.

FRATERNITY VISITS DOWNTOWN CHURCH

The Phalanx fraternity, "Y" young men's organization, attended the Wednesday evening worship service of the First Christian church in a body. The members were the congregation's guests.

Featuring was a fitting Thanksgiving sermon in which the pastor, Dr. G. S. Bennett, lauded the fraternity's fundamental objective of service. Special music was contributed by the quartet.

The visit to the church followed a business meeting of the fraternity at the Y. M. C. A.

Crisis Today In Illness Of Mix

Coast Doctors Battle Gamely To Save Life Of Movie Cowboy

SPENDS FAIRLY GOOD THURSDAY

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 27.—A crisis today was expected in the illness of Tom Mix, cowboy and circus star, dangerously ill in a hospital with peritonitis that followed an emergency appendicitis operation.

A physicians' bulletin read: "Mix spent a fairly comfortable 12 hours and indications are that he is holding his own but he is not yet out of danger. By late today he may be able to know definitely the outcome."

Bacteriophage obtained from Stanford university still was being employed to combat spread of poison in Mix's system.

More than 100 telegrams, most of them suggesting medical remedies to aid Mix, have been received at the hospital since Mix was operated upon. One collect telegram for $8.50 from Mt. Claire, N. J., was unwittingly paid for at the hospital offices.

Patrolmen Aid In Feeding Of Hungry

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27—More than 10,000 bushels of fresh vegetable and fruits was solicited from Western Pennsylvania farmers last month by Troop B of the Pennsylvania State Highway Patrol for the Surplus for the Needy Committee in Pittsburgh, Captain Wilson C. Price, Superintendent of the Patrol, today announced. Solicitation of the foodstuffs by the patrolmen was permitted by Governor Gifford Pinchot at the request of those in charge of the movement.

The patrolmen solicited 8356 bushels of apples, 149 of plums, 51 of grapes, 340 of tomatoes, 358 of pears, 28 of beets, 10 of carrots, 30 of cabbage, 170 of potatoes, eight of onions, 20 of beans, six of cucumbers, two of cauliflower, one of peppers, 25 of turnips, 60 of squash, 210 of pumpkins and 60 dozens ears of corn.

Solicitation was made by patrolmen from the following sub-stations Beaver Falls, Butler, Greensburg, New Castle, New Eagle, New Kensington, Perrysville, Uniontown, Washington and Waynesburg.

Emergency Treatment For Burns

"First Aid" For Accidents Given By Dr. Clendening

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Yesterday we talked about the hazard of burns to young children. Most of these burns we found were due to scalding by water. Or by other hot liquids—such as coffee, soup, gravy and milk.

The important thing is prevention. To place the coffee pot or kettle containing the hot liquid well back on the stove where the little fellow will not be tempted to try to get it. Or in the middle of the table, where a child clutching the tablecloth will not pull the coffee pot or dish down and spill the contents over itself.

But in spite of all precautions some burns will occur. Every household should know emergency treatment.

Burns always are serious and may be fatal. Twenty-nine out of 214 children treated for burns at the Milwaukee Children's hospital died.

"It is important to know that a child with his clothing in flames should be rolled in a carpet, rug, blanket or some other object that will quench the fire. It is also important to know that while awaiting the arrival of the physician or ambulance, the child who is seriously burned should be placed in a tub of warm water with a pound of baking soda added to the water. It should be known that cold water never should be used, because one of the most important points is that of preserving the body heat," says Stanley J. Seegar in "Hygeia."

If the bath is not available or help is coming too soon to make it worth while to prepare it, preserve the body heat by wrapping the child in hot blankets and hot water bottles. If the burn is extensive on the body do not attempt to remove the clothing before the child is taken to the hospital or before the doctor arrives.

If the face or hands alone are burned, cover the area with gauze or a clean towel saturated in a solution of baking soda (heaping teaspoonful of soda to a pint of water). Or cover with a smear of vaseline.

One of the best dressings for burns is picric acid. Among its many valuable qualities is its ability to grow skin.

The most valuable recent addition to our treatment of burns is Davidson's treatment by tannic acid. A 2½ per cent solution of the tannic acid is made and sprayed on the burned area with an atomizer. The Chinese have used tea in treating burns for many years; and tea is simply a form of tannic acid solution.

The prevention and cure of deformities due to scar formation is a constant source of concern in the treatment of burns. Plastic surgical operations and skin grafting after the scar has formed, do much to restore the condition to normal.

SCHOOL PROJECT USES LOCAL LABOR

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27—A set of plans and specifications for a building project have been filed with the Department of Public Instruction that the unique in their effort to provide employment and permanently benefit the community, Titusville is erecting a grandstand on the high school athletic field from a fund raised by public subscription. The special clause inserted in the specifications as as follows:

"All labor necessary for the execution of this contract will be paid for out of the municipal employment fund raised by public subscription at the amount of $3.00 per day. All skilled labor shall be paid at the prevailing wake $3.00 per day of which is to be paid out of the municipal fund, the balance between $3.00 and the regular scale to be paid by the general contractor.

ASK EVACUATION OF 6,000 IN CHINA AS NON-COMBATANTS

(International News Service)

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The Japanese consul general at Tientsin has requested a steamship to evacuate 6000 non-combatants, said a Tokyo dispatch today to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

The consul general said 400 Japanese troops at Tientsin were opposed by 6000 Chinese regulars.

To Stop A Cough That Hangs On Just Do This:

Take a teaspoonful of Bronchuline Emulsion. Never mind the taste nor the smell—it's not half as bad as you think it is going to be.

If your cough hasn't stopped, take another dose in three or four hours.

Two doses is usually enough to kill the most stubborn, hang-on cough. A bottle surely does it or you get your money back.

Of course if you want a sweet, sugary sedative (that upsets your stomach and may give you the drug habit) Bronchuline Emulsion is not the cough medicine for you. Bronchuline contains no chloroform, no narcotics, no habit-forming drugs of any kind.

But it certainly kills a cough! No doubt about it. Or Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., and all other good druggists guarantee to give your money back.

MUSHROOMS ARE CONVENTION TOPIC

(International News Service)

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Just how important a place the little mushroom fills in every Frenchman's life, can be judged by the fact that a big Mushroom Congress here called delegates from more than eighty mycological societies in France.

The possibility of curing mushroom poisoning by means of a serum was discussed at great length, for cases of poisoning have become more common in recent years.

Extensive research work on this subject has been made during the past ten years by Dr. Dujarric of the Pasteur Institute, and it is he who has prepared the serum which is expected to bring big results. In the meantime, suggestions have been made that every school child in France be taught how to recognize the edible fungi.

Commends Work Of Motor Patrol

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27. — The work of the special detail of Pennsylvania State Highway Patrolmen that was sent to Virginia recently by Governor Gifford Pinchot to aid the Virginia authorities in handling the crowds of the Yorktown sesquicentennial celebration has been highly commended by Governor John Garland Pollard, of Virginia. The men were sent into Virginia at the latter's request.

In writing Governor Pinchot, the Virginia governor stated that the patrolmen "worked long hours and under most trying circumstances, but rendered the very highest type of service and were of invaluable assistance to the traffic force of this state in taking care of the tremendous crowds which visited Yorktown."

Secretary of Revenue Clyde L. King, under whose direct supervision the State Highway Patrol operates, has sent a copy of Governor Pollard's letter to each man of the detail.

MECHANICS SEEK WELDING COURSES

HARRISBURG, Nov 27.—Reports received by the department of public instruction from local school districts indicate an urgent demand for instruction in welding in evening extension classes.

The majority of the men enrolled in these classes are journeymen mechanics, such as plumbers, electricians, structural iron workers and auto mechanics who are employed during the day at their regular trades .The demand for this kind of work has been brought about by a change of method in the joining of pipes. Formerly, pipes such as found in connection with home plumbing and heating in aeroplane construction, etc., were joined together withscrew joints and the like; now, the demand is for the work to be done more quickly and effectively by welding.

Policemen's Ball Is Very Successful

Another Record Crowd Is In Attendance At The Annual Thanksgiving Event

Annual Thanksgiving ball of the New Castle police officers, was an event of last evening at The Cathedral ballroom and a crowd estimated at from 1600 to 2000 spent the evening there, enjoying the fine music and delightful program of dance numbers. The crowd in attendance included not only local people but quite a number of visitors from surrounding cities and towns.

Feature of the evening was the prize waltz, in which many participated and the winners prize of which was a fine electric reading lamp. The regulations called for a pivot waltz and the final decision of the judges awarded the prize to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hickey of English avenue.

The general committee in charge of the floor and various activities of the evening included Bud Fleeger, president of New Castle Lodge of the Fraternal Order of Police; James P. Steiner, John Young, M. J. Young, Peter Hillers, J. Ed. Elder, George Kennedy, Howard Richards, Thomas Lynch, U. G. Harper, Robert Dukes, Ray Showalter, William Allgier, James Hogan, Willis McMullen, Fred Harlan, William Tyrrell and John Moore.

MANY ENTRIES FOR BIG STOCK SHOW

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 20 years from 14 different states will be entered in the annual international junior live stock feeding contest here next month. More than 200 entries are expected. Both the exhibitors and the exhibits will be of the junior class, for the youngsters will show only calves, lambs, and young pigs, no adult animals will be included. The 1931 International Livestock Show as a whole will be the largest thus far, according to Manager B. H. Heide. He expects more than 12,000 animals in the exhibits.

BIBLE, 232 YEARS OLD IS READABLE

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 27.—A 232-year-old Bible, printed in London in 1699, with the Psalms of David written in "meeter," is owned by John A. McDougall, of Colorado Springs.

Still in good state of preservation, it was a wedding present to McDougall's great grandmother, Elizabeth Campbell, given her Jan. 27, 1791, by her father, Alexander Campbell.

Its history prior to that time is not known, though it is believed to have been in the family much longer.

ENGLAND REVIVES BICYCLE FOR TWO

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—At the same time that women's hats and dresses are reverting to the styles of the "gay 90's," the tandem or, "bicycle built for two," is said to be making a very strong comeback on the roadways of England, according to a report received from George Lewis Jones of the commercial attache's office in London.

The older generation which knew the joys of this form of combined sport and transportation is said to be watching the development with keen interest, according to British comments on the subject.

Cripples Go To School Each Day

Attend Classes Regularly At State Hospital For Crippled Children

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27.—Of the nearly 100 patients in the State Hospital for Crippled Children, at Elizabethtown, 83 of them were able to attend school in the institution during October, reported Dr. Theodore B. Appel, Secretary of Health, today. One of the features of the work at the Hospital, is the effort made by the Department to see to it that children admitted, keep up with their school work as far as it may be possible.

During the past month there were 22 school days, and in the 1st and 2nd grades there were 34 in attendance. Twenty-one were entered in the 3rd, 4th and 5th grades, while 15 pursued their studies in the 6th, 7th and 8th grades. The Senior High School had 13 pupils in attendance.

These figures are illuminating because they show that the condition of the children is such, in a vast majority of the cases, that they can move right along with their school work. When discharge time comes, and they are ready to go back to their homes with all the improvement in their physical condition that can be secured in the Hospital, they find themselves able to take up their school activities in the home school, without serious impairment from their stay at Elizabethtown.

Of course, it should be stated, that the method of treatment and the health of the pupil may prevent him from attending in the same regular fashion, and for the same number of hours as a normal child in a normal community. But the interesting fact is, that notwithstanding handicaps, absence from home, and presence in a surgical institution for the most effective treatment of his condition, we here find the crippled child still having his mental life developed along fairly normal lines.

NINETEEN ADDED TO STATE PAYROLL BY GOVERNOR PINCHOT

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27.—Nineteen additional persons have been added to the public payroll and ten dismissed, the governor's office today announced.

William C. Startzell, Brookville, $2400; George M. Hunter, Greensburg $1860; Clarence J. Weaver, Franklin, $2640; Clyde W. Ross, Tionesta, $1200; Alexander W. Coffruth Somerset, $1200; and Martin L. Croll, Butler, $1920.

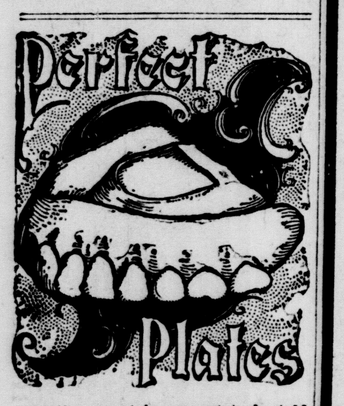
Those dismissed included: Frank Truman, Brookville, $1200; Donald Murray, Moylan, $1860; Randolph F. Sterling, Uniontown, $1200; and Thomas W. Harris, Athens, $1680.

PUBLISH 600 COPIES OF 'JUNIOR CITIZEN'

George Washington's Thanksgiving number of its "Junior Citizen" appeared from the school's print shop today, 600 copies strong. The paper's circulation today, it was said, is the largest it has even been.

Editor-in-Chief John Thomas' staff, adding new features every issue, has kept up the usual Washington tradition for fine papers. Today's was the fourth this year.

Boys under George R. Deuel compose the paper in type and printed it.



Teeth we put in are not to be told from real ones. We counterfit nature perfectly. They fit and suit your expression. They restore the original shape of your face. At before the war prices.

Teachers And Salaries In Schools Discussed

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 27.—Herewith stated in Superintendent W. Ray Smith's Survey Report of the Ellwood City Schools, are interesting facts on teachers and their salaries. Comparisons with other communities are made and the salary scheme used here is revealed.

Size Of Classes

The size of the classes of the Ellwood City elementary schools are as follows: median 35, lower quarter 34, upper quarter 38, maximum 45; junior high school: median 34, lower quarter 31, upper quarter 35, maximum 41; senior high school: median 30, lower quarter 25, upper quarter 36, maximum 40.

The maximum number of elementary pupils per teacher is 35, for the junior high school 30, and 25 for the senior high school. These numbers are the generally accepted standards throughout the United States.

The establishment of the above numbers can be justified on the basis that classes larger than the number given above are detrimental to the educational welfare of the pupils, or are detrimental to the physical efficiency of the teacher.

Men Teachers

Nineteen per cent of the teachers in the Ellwood City Schools are men. There is but one man in the elementary schools, eleven in the junior high school, and nine in the senior high school. This marks a total of twenty one men teachers, or 19 per cent of the teachers are men. In view of the fact that the present ratio of men to the total teaching personnel for the country as a whole is 16 per cent, it would seem that Ellwood City employes slightly more men in the junior and senior high schools than is ordinarily done over the country. The same, however, cannot be said for the elementary teachers. It would pay Ellwood City well to employ several men teachers for the upper grades of the elementary schools. The influence of a number of men among the children of the elementary schools would be excellent. This is not to argue against the value of women teachers, as the excellence of their work is acknowledged. It is a mistaken policy, however, that excellence altogether to rule out the masculine influence from the younger children.

The Stability Of The Ellwood City Teachers

The findings as shown by Table A are as follows:

1. In the elementary and junior high schools for 1930-1931 the average (median) teacher had been teaching in Ellwood City for three years prior to September 1930; one fourth of the teachers had served Ellwood City for five years; one fourth had taught in Ellwood City one year or less.

2. In the high school, the average (median) teacher had been teaching in Ellwood City for two years; one fourth of the teachers had taught in Ellwood City three years or more, one fourth had taught in Ellwood City one year or less.

The Ellwood City school system does not retain its teachers as well as a community of its size and prosperity should. The instability of the teaching staff is little short of alarming. A twenty nine per cent overturn of the teachers in one year indicates highly unfavorable conditions. With such a rapid flow of teachers in and out of the system it is almost impossible to build up instruction and approximate the quality of work that Ellwood City needs. It is unreasonable to expect high efficiency in carrying through a continuous educational program with so large a proportion of the teaching staff to be initiated each year.

The two most important factors that cause teachers to resign from the Ellwood City Schools are marriage and an opportunity to teach where the salaries are higher and the working conditions better.

The shifting of teachers is costly both to school boards and to the teachers. When a new teacher starts out in a system it takes considerable time and supervision to thoroughly acquaint her with the educational objectives and standards of the school. Of course, the greatest damage is suffered by the children who sometimes have the misfortune to draw a poor teacher. But even when the new teacher is a good one, there is a loss because of the difference that exists in ideas and methods. The best kind of instruction is most likely to follow when there is a high degree of permanency and professional mindedness among the teachers.

Teachers' Salaries

The State minimum salary for teachers with a two years normal school certificate or the equivalent is $1,000, and for teachers with a four year college certificate is $1,200. In 1930-1931 the median salary for teachers in Ellwood City was $1,600 for men teachers and $1,500 for women teachers. The median salary for junior high school teachers was $1,700 for men teachers, and $1,400 for women teachers. The median salary for senior high school teachers was $1,800 for men and $1,600 for women. These facts are shown in Table 14.

A study of the salaries paid teachers in the United States and Pennsylvania in school districts of about the same population as Ellwood City shows that the median salary for elementary schools teachers was $1,415.00 in the United States and $1,438.00 in Pennsylvania. This is $115.00 in the United States, and $138.00 in Pennsylvania more than the median salary paid the Ellwood City elementary teachers. This study shows that the median salary for junior high school teachers was $1,634.00 in the United States and $1,607.00 in Pennsylvania. This is $34.00 in the United States and $57.00 in Pennsylvania more than the median salary paid the Ellwood City junior high school teachers. This study also shows the median salary for senior high school teachers was $1,879.00 in the United States and $1,844.00 in Pennsylvania. This is $110.00 in the United States and $94.00 in Pennsylvania more than the median salary paid the Ellwood City senior high school teachers. Ellwood City is paying its teachers, elementary, junior high, and senior high slightly less salaries than are paid in school districts of about the same population in the United States. However, the salaries in Ellwood City have been increasing steadily since 1924 as the median salaries at that time were, elementary $1,206.00, junior high school $1,400.00, and senior high school $1,400.00. This is a most commendable policy on the part of the board of education. The great significance to be attached to it, however, is that the board of education should be willing to continue this policy until teachers' salaries are at a level which will secure for the Ellwood City Schools the very best teachers and will make it possible to retain them in Ellwood City for long periods of efficient service. Buildings, and grounds are essential equipment for teaching, but they are only inert matter until made effective by consecrated teachers with ideals and visions and the professional equipment to make these effective in daily contact with boys and girls.

Single Salary Schedule

The salary schedule was put into effect in the Ellwood City Schools in 1929. It is known as a single salary schedule. It is being generally recognized that a teacher's salary should be determined by her training, experience, and ability to perform the task, and not by the grade or subject which she teaches. It will be noted that this schedule is to be applied to all teachers alike, whether they are teaching in the third grade of the elementary schools or in the senior high school. If an elementary teacher succeeds notably as a teacher in the first grade it should not be necessary for her to become a senior high school teacher. A position for which she may not be at all qualified by temperament or training, in order that she may receive proper remuneration for her services.

The minimum salary paid to an inexperienced woman teacher with two years of training beyond the high school is $1,000.00. The next year she would receive an automatic increase of $100.00 and the same increase for three years more. At the end of four years she will have reached the maximum but at that time if her work is entirely satisfacory she may be given an increase of $50.00 a year for a period of four years until she will receive $1,600.00. If she should qualify for the next higher class of the salary schedule it would be possible to reach a new limit of $1,800.00. She may get beyond this maximum by qualifying for the class with four or five years of training beyond high school.

The great advantage and economy of using such a salary schedule in determining the salary of teachers is the incentive which it gives a teacher to keep growing professionally as she teaches, and the guarantee to her that such effort on her part will be rewarded by the community which she serves. There is nothing more deadening to a teaching staff than to have the individuals composing it feel that the community which they serve does not appreciate in some substantial way their sacrifice of time and money to put themselves in a position of serving better.

It is not implied that such a salary schedule will result in the average salary of all elementary teachers being as high as that of high school teachers. The qualifications of college graduation, required of high school teachers, will result in placing practically all of them in the higher classes of the salary schedule. A great many of the Ellwood City elementary teachers, have less academic and professional training, and the average salary is of course lower. The elementary teacher who has as much training as a high school teacher is paid just as much salary, however. Such a schedule changes the emphasis from that of rewarding teachers for keeping alive physically to that of rewarding them for keeping alive professionally.

At present these is a sound and economical way of rewarding efficient teaching in Ellwood City. The board of education is to be congratulated for adopting this fine type of salary schedule.

A professionally constructed and attractive salary schedule is fundamental to success in competition for efficient teachers. It will be an incentive to teachers to increase their professional training in order to qualify for higher salaries; and at the same time the large yearly turnover of teachers is being reduced as a result of this fine type of salary schedule.

The minimum and maximum for men teachers are $200.00 higher than the minimum and maximum for women teachers. We feel that a certain number of men teachers are essential in a school system and the fact remains that men cannot be secured for the same salaries as women.

New Castle Woman Is Injured In Auto Accident

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Nancy M. Horton, wife of the former manager of the Ellay store here, is in the Ellwood City hospital suffering from some painful cuts and bruises and an injury to the head as a result of an automobile accident yesterday on the Ellwood-Beaver Falls road.

Mrs. Horton was enroute to Beaver Falls when she was crowded off the road by a truck going in the same direction. In order to avoid the inevitable collision, she swerved her car into the ditch and which struck a telephone pole. Mrs. Horton was immediately rendered unconscious. A passing motorist brought her to the local hospital. Mrs. Horton resides on Leasure avenue, New Castle.

New Machine Is Damaged By Fire

Local Fire Department Is Busy Wednesday; Answer Three Fires

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 27—Wednesday was an exceptionally busy day for the Ellwood City Fire Department. Having already attended to one fire earlier in the morning at the American Railway Express company office they were destined to be called into action twice more.

The second fire occurred at 3:40 when a new automobile owned by Henry Slesin of 423 Lawrence avenue in some undetermined manner got fire in the Cartwright garage behind Keefer's Restaurant. Firemen were forced to batter the door of the garage down and push the car out. Chemicals soon had the fire out after a heavy loss of $400.Damage to the building was estimated at $80.

The third fire took place at 7:15 at the home of Floyd Frishkorn on Pershing street. An overheated furnace set fire to some curtain poles nearby. Prompt action by the fire department prevented any serious loss. The damage was estimated at a small amount.

Good Attendance At Union Services

ELLWOOD CITY Nov. 27—A splendid attendance featured the union Thanksgiving services in the First Baptist church yesterday morning. Rev. Robert H. Little, pastor of the local M. E. church delivered the message, "In God We Trust." There were several good selections by the choir and the Young People gave an excellent dramatization of the hymn "I Would Be True."

The North Sewickley Presbyterian church was packed Wednesday evening at its union services. Rev. J. R. Routledge offered the prayer of Thanksgiving and Rev. Robert Bell delivered the message.

The Moravia Christian Alliance had a capacity crowd at the union services Wednesday evening. Five churches along the Ellwood-New Castle road combined for this occasion.

Ellport Home Is Burned Down On Thursday Night

Fire Bug Is Believed To Be At Work Here, Is 12th Blaze In Year

STATE PROBE IS EXPECTED

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 27.—One family in the borough of Ellport was made homeless, when all their earthly possessions were burned to cinders by a fire which completely destroyed the two frame house of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hilberg. The fire starting at 8 o'clock Thursday night burned the home to the ground, while members of the family were absent.

The home was exceptionally large, having nine rooms and a barber shop in connection. The fire, according to witnesses originated in the basement. For some mysterious reason the coal cellar was the first to burst into flames. The family was visiting friends in the city at the time. The first alarm was given by the Anthony Kooevar family who are near neighbors.

Efforts to obtain the services of the Ellwood City fire department were fruitless. The Ellport borough has cancelled its contract with Ellwood City for fire protection and therefore council ordered the department to respond to no fires in that district.

Not an article was salvaged from the burning home. The clothes that the family wore at the time are their only possession now. The work of the crowd gathered at the scene prevented the fire from spreading to other homes.

This is the twelfth fire within the year that is charged to mysterious causes. Each of the fires in the Ellport borough occurred while the family was absent and all but one were great losses. Fire Chief H. T. Plante is making a thorough investigation into this satuation and shortly expects to hear from the state department which is expected to take the matter in hand. Recent investigations were fruitless.

It is believed that a fire bug is at work in the borough.

Stranger Killed By Freight Train

"John Canivan" May Be Name Of Man Who Met Death On P. & L. E. Tracks

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 27.—A srtanger, whose name may be John Canivan but whose residence is unknown, was instantly killed about 5 o'clock Wedensday evening when struck by a Pittsburgh & Lake Erie train near the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie freight station here.

The man was walking on the Baltimore & Ohio tracks but as the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie came along he attempted to cross the tracks of that road and was struck. Both legs and his left hand were cut off. He also received a bad scalp wound over the left eye. He was breathing his last as the freight, in charge of Conductor Trotter stopped, and the train crew rushed to where the unfortunate man was lying.

The remains were taken to a local morgue and Coroner J. P. Caldwell notified. The man was apparently about 55 or 60 years of age. He was of medium build, had blue eyes, almost black bushy eyebrows, gray hair and a slight scar on his chin.

He wore heavy work shoes, dark trousers, dark vest, grayish coat and brown checkered overcoat. On the inside of his coat collar was a label, showing that the coat had been purchased at the store of James S. Masson & Son of Meadville. There were no papers of any kind in his pockets by which he could be identified.

It is said that a man believed to be the deceased had been at police headquarters and had given the name of John Canivan. Whether or not this is his correct name is not known.

The body is being held at the morgue in the hope that publication of his description may lead to his identification.

South Side Has Union Services For Thanksgiving

The auditorium and Sunday school room of the Maitland Memorial Primitive Methodist church was filled to overflowing Wednesday evening as the congregations of the South Side churches gathered for the annual union Thanksgiving services.

A splendid Thanksgiving spirit prevailed throughout the service with the six churches of the South Side each represented by ther pastors and many members.

The offering lifted was presented to the Salvation Army for the carrying on of its welfare work.

Evan Hopkins and Frances Gibson offered their bit to the service by the rendition of beautiful vocal numbers expressing the Thanksgiving theme.

Rev. Rees T. Williams, pastor of the First Congregational church preached a thoughtful sermon on "What Shall It Profit a Man, if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

Claims Condition Has Been Remedied

When council met today in city hall, Attorney W. S. Reynolds, counsel for Morris Newmark informed councilmen that walls which it was claimed bulged at 14 South Apple Way had been repaired. Council instructed the city engineer to make an investigation. If the condition has been remedied proceedings which were filed against Newmark will be dropped.

It has been alleged that owing to the dangerous condition of the building, a nuisance existed. A hearing was held and Newmark promised to fix the walls in a safe manner.

Nine Indians In Mountain Region Frozen To Death

SEVERE BLIZZARD STRIKES REGION

(International News Service)

GALLUP, N. M., Nov. 27.—Five hundred Indians are still on Cerro Alto and Santa Rita Mesas today snowbound by the storm which has taken the lives of nine of their number within the past few days.

Superintendent G. A. Trotter of the Zuni agency said that Zuni, largest Indian village in the United States, with a normal population of 3000, shared limited accommodations with hundreds of Navajos as the latter, seeking food and shelter, crowded into the Pueblos with the Zunis. Nearly all the Zunis have returned to their homes, Trotter said, the Indians still on the mesas being Navajos.

Trail Is Broken

Clyde Walker, veteran Indian trader, broke a trail through rapidly melting snows to bring 39 Indians from Atarque to Zuni in a truck yesterday. The Indians remaining at Atarque are the ones in need, Trotter said. Reports from those who broke through said whole families were without food.

No word had reached Zuni today from rescue parties battling their way through the snows in an attempt to reach the 500 Indians still atop the mesas.

Five Meet Death

The five Navajos found frozen to death yesterday were huddled together beneath a shelter of branches over the ashes of a fire. Three small children were in the group.

The blizzard which struck this region early in the week, described as the worst in the history of the Zuni country, caught more than a thousand Indians unprepared and unprotected on their annual pinon nut hunt. Nine deaths have been reported with the possibility that more may be found when rescuing parties reach the storm swept mesa tops.

MY NEW YORK
By JAMES ASWELL

By Central Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—What few New Yorkers know:

That President Hoover's Quaker parents were so strict they wouldn't let Herbert read spicy magazines like The Youth's Companion.

That the first issue of a "gossip newsreel" will contain shots of Manhattan's most fashionable speakeasy filmed at full tilt without the patrons' knowledge.

That of the thirty-odd current Broadway shows, only three have been bought by the movies—which seek plots now in original scripts and magazine stories.

That the reason recent agitation for separate subway cars for women, painted white, got nowhere is that the scheme has been tried and failed—because the women wouldn't ride together, prefering to be mashed in all senses of the word than to abandon the co-ed cars.

That Bruce Barton, at the annual contest meeting of the Tall Story club, related the following yarn (and didn't win the prize): A southern game warden was asked why cottontail rabbits were so thin. He replied that the boll weevil, desperate because of the cotton crop shortage, were catching rabbits to get the cotton out of their tails.

That Prince Johann, of Lichtenstein, has a Texas girl for a bride, and that there are 3,000 Lichtensteinians—or however you'd say it—in America. (Hey, San Antonio, did you dream such a thing?)

That the new vocation for society playboys is song writing instead of bond selling. Carlton Barclay, from one of the uppitiest Park avenue sets, wrote the lyrics for "Haunting Memories."

That Eugene Todd, 75, dean of the department store Santa Clauses, is a professional lodestone seller and grows his own beard and hair because "I want to play fair with my public."

That the novel "Bad Girl" was responsible for the following meteoric successes: Vina Delmar, the authoress; James Dunn and Sally Eilers, in the movie version; Sylvia Sydney on the stage, and Minna Gombell, the character actress in the movies.

That Urbane L. Barrett, the Iowa farm hand who extracts cube roots of 19 digit figures in a trice, got the inspiration for the trick while milking a cow, addresses learned societies and has been acclaimed a great mathematician, but has never made a cent out of his gift.

That Western Union messenger girls now scoot about on roller skates, carrying death messages and those involving huge sums of money only.

That scholars seeking information about old Russia can find more of it in the Grand Duke Vladimir Alexandrovitch collection at the New York public library than in Russia herself.

That the biggest penthouse in Hollywood is occupied by someone not in the movie business—while penthouses are New York's symbol of gilded aristocracy.

That debutantes now insist on "gallery parties" at the theaters, where they used to sniff at upper boxes; and that scores of Wall Street bond salesmen of the dinner jacket clique have been able to ward off the wolf with doses of caviar and cocktails at "teas."

Sharon Man Is Held By Police For Investigation

Found To Have An Automatic Gun And Other Suspicious Articles In His Possession

C. E. Smith of Sharon, Pa., was arrested last night about eight o'clock on East Washington street, near Cascade Park, by Officers Dukes, Hanna and Cooper, when he was found to have an automatic and also four small sample vials of liquor in a case, on his person.

The police were tipped off to be on the lookout for the driver of a car bearing Pennsylvania license 99K60 who had a gun and it happened that Smith answered the description and had the car bearing that license number. He is being held for further investigation.

Three Burned In Fire At Sharon

Young Girl And Two Brothers Burned As Home Takes Fire—Loss $6,500

MOTHER ABSENT AS FIRE OCCURS

(International News Service)

SHARON, Pa., Nov. 27.—A young girl and her two brothers were burned today when fire destroyed the home of John Parsin, with loss estimated at $6,500.

Helen Parsin, 19, the girl, and her two brothers, Michael 13, and Edward, 6, fled from the house while their father called the fire department. The girl was the most seriously burned.

Their mother was absent from the home visiting with relatives at Export at the time of the fire.

Helen was burned on the head, face and body while the two boys suffered burns of the hands, arms and face.

Trinity Services On Thursday Are Well Attended

Thanksgiving Day Services Attract Many People To That Church

Thanksgiving services held Thursday morning at Trinity Episcopal church, attracted the largest number of worshipers in many years to that church. Early service was held at 7:30 o'clock and was followed by the general Thanksgiving service at ten o'clock.

Not only was the congregation larger than for many years, but the choir was augmented to some extent and the music was of more than ordinary appeal.

Rev. Phillip C. Pearson, the rector, delivered the sermon at the latter service, taking as his text Colossians 4:2 which reads "Maintain Your Zest for Prayer by Thanksgiving". The sermon of Rev. Pearson caused general favorable comment, due to the fact that it centered about the season of the year and the causes for thankfulness even under present conditions and the way to make things better. Using the interpretation of the word Zest in a wider sense, he showed that the text means that all should bring a brightness or color into the situation today, by their actions leading others to a more helpful view of things.

City To Purchase "Second Hand" Car

Will Be Used By Sanitary Police Force, Now One Short

Councilman Clayton H. Reeves, superintendent of the department of public health, today was granted councilmanic permission when Solons met in the city building to trade in a machine now in use by sanitary police on a used automobile to be put on duty in the health department.

He said the present car was bought for $135.00. He also said that the department has been short one sanitary policeman but owing to the use of the car he had not asked that the vacancy be filled. Asked the price of the car he proposed buying he said he planned to trade in the old car and pay $300 additional on the used Ford, 1930 model, rune for about 3,000 miles.

"Why can't they do without a car?" asked Mayor Gillespie.

Reeves explained the department is entitled to three sanitary policemen but owing to the use of the car he had not asked to have the one vacancy filled.

"They're not overworked" remarked the mayor.

Reeves pointed out that a case of measles had been reported and that if a measles epidemic were to come the car would be needed, He said the city is in a healthy condition but it was a question whether or not the city wanted to fill the vacancy or pay $300 for the car.

On motion of Councilman Conninger, Director Reeves was given sanction to purchase the car if it came up to the report made to him.

Westminster Abbey was originally the abbey church of a monastery founded in the reign of King Offar of Mercia and reorganized by Dunstan in 971.

Several Persons Injured In Auto Accidents Here

Automobiles Are Also Damaged In Accidents Reported Here

Arthur McNickel of 930 East Hazel street was severely but apparently not seriously injured over the Thanksgiving season when as he got off an eastbound street car at Adams street on East Washington street, he walked into the side of the machine of John W. McElroy of 1606 Huron avenue, which was being driven west at the time, and was knocked to the ground. He was removed to the office of a physician and it was found there that he had apparently escaped serious injury, and he was taken home.

Fred Williams Jr. of Clenmore boulevard was en route east on East North street in front of the post office building when a small colored girl about 11 years of age, in going from the north to the south side of East North street, ran into the left rear fender of the Williams machine and was knocked down. She was taken to a physician, where it was found that she was not hurt, only frightened. She declined to give her name or being taken home.

Frank Pagley of 9 East Home street was riding his bicycle on South Mill street when a car en route north on Mill street, hit his bicycle, knocking him off and hurting his back and also knocking Frank Copple of 8½ East Home street, who was on the bicycle, off and injuring him.

Two New Forest Maps Printed

Department Of Forests And Waters Distributes Information

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27—New maps of two Pennsylvania State Forests have been issued by the Department of Forests and Waters and are available for public distribution.

The Logan State Forest in Centre and Huntingdon counties embraces nearly 64,000 acres and comprises the Barree, Bear Meadows and Greenwood Divisions. The district forester is T. Roy Morton with headquarters at Petersburg.

Some of the best hunting in Pennsylvania is in this State forest. Hundreds of deer are shot there every year by sportsmen as well as large numbers of ruffed grouse, wild turkey, and gray squirrels. Within the Logan State Forest is the Greenwood Forest Tree Nursery one of the three large nurseries maintained by the Department of Forests and Waters.

The Penn State forest is located in Centre and Mifflin counties and contains more than 53,000 acres comprising the Nittany Curtin, Seven Mountains and Kishecokelas Divisions. Thomas C. Harbeson is the district forester in charge of the Penn State Forest with headquarters at Milroy.

This is a well known hunting region and numerous beaver dams on the streams of this State Forest interest all who visit them. The Penn Nursery is located at Fotters Mills. Transplants for reforesting difficult sites and shade and ornamental trees for special planting projects are grown in this nursery.

The use maps of these two popular State Forests contain a wealth of information for the convenience of campers, tourists, hikers and hunters. In addition they show State Forest lands, streams, springs, game refuges, public camps, State highways, forest roads, trails and the headquar'ers of forest officers are marked.

PEOPLES FURNITURE CO. 101-103 South Jefferson St. (One Square South of the Diamond) New Castle

LOOKING BACK IN NEW CASTLE

Approximately half a century ago, this city possessed a public bandstand on the public square, which was designed not only for usefulness but as an architectural asset to the central point of the city. It was constructed in the eighties of the past century and was located in about the midway point of the eastern half of the present public square and rather toward the north or right hand side of the public square in going west. It was located almost opposite the east end of the present Y. W. C. A. building. It was designed by S. W. Foulke, a leading architect of the city at that time and erected under his supervision. It was used for a number of years for the purpose of public band concerts given by the then New Castle Band and other musical organizations of the city and vicinity. Charles L. Reynolds of the Little Hotel on South Mill street, remembers the construction of the stand quite vividly, as he put on the slate roof, the slate being used, being of small and attractive effectiveness in the general appearance of the stand. It was finally sold to Alex. Thompson, one of the city's big industrial figures of those days and was taken intact to the Old Mill as the plant operated by Mr. Thompson and others was known, and biding placed on it, making an ideal office building for the concern.

Council To Start Budget Making

No Equipment Purchases To Be Authorized During Coming Year

Indications are that when council convenes to compile appropriations for the operation of the city of New Castle during 1932, there will be no large appropriations for new equipment. The council will meet within the next few weeks to make the budget.

It was indicated today by several councilmen that it will be necessary to purchase some hose for the new fire truck which will arrive here about December 1. The truck was bought for $6,000, a few weeks ago and will be stationed in the Second ward.

The truck stationed at present in the Second ward fire station will be kept for reserve duty. It is difficult, according to councilmen to obtain equipment for the Knox when a breakdown occurs. The Knox is now undergoing repairs.

As usual there is talk of changes in some of the positions but so far no definite announcement has been made by present or incoming officials.

STRUCK BY CAR WOMAN IS KILLED

YOUNGSTOWN, O. Nov. 27—Mrs. Mary Stroney, 68, was killed last night when struck by an auto driven by Frank Cook. The aged woman was crossing the street and at South and Pasadena avenues and ran from the path of one car directly in front of Cook's car, police were told.

Louisiana Stirred Over Slaying, Due To Political Feud

Charles DeJean, Prominent Adversary Of Governor Long Is Shot To Death

(International News Service)

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 27.—Louisiana's already turbulent political waters were still further troubled today as the consequence of the spectacular killing of Charles Dejean, prominent adversary of Governor Huey P. Long, by a recent convert to the governor's cause, Judge Gilbert L. Dupre, 72-year-old state legislator.

Dejean's denunciation of Judge Dupre for the latter's switch in political allegiance prompted the shooting which occurred yesterday on a street in the town of Opelousas. The two men met on the street and Dejean, a leading business man, wrote his criticism on a pad of paper carried by Dupre who is deaf.

The aged political leader returned to his office and obtained a revolver. A few minutes later the two men encountered each other and resumed their argument. It is said that Dejean advanced on Dupre until the aged legislator threatened to shoot if the business man took another step. Dejean advanced another step and Dupre fired. Dejean was almost instantly killed.

The Chinese, however, military authorities here declared, would be "caught in a vice" between Tientsin and Chinchow as the result of the hostilities.

The mixed brigade of Japanese regulars, which recently arrived here from Japan, was sent southward in armored trains on the Peiping-Mukden railway, six battalions were dispatched from Newchwang, and other reinforcements were enroute to the fighting area from the north.

American and other foreign military attaches, who were leaving for Tsitsihar and Harbin, have returned to Mukden in view of the new hostilities.

Precipitates Operations

A communique issued by Japanese military headquarters here indicated that the attack made upon the Japanese concession at Tientsin precipitated today's operations.

"Chinese troops at Tientsin," said the communique, "enveloped and attacked the Japanese garrison there last night.

"The Japanese garrison, from the standpoint of self-defense, took decisive action.

"The Kwangtung army (that is, the Japanese expeditionary force in South Manchuria,) in view of the dangerous situation at Tientsin, and the unlawful attitude of the Chinese military, decided to take necessary measures, and in disposing of its forces accordingly."

By JOHN GOETTE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PEIPING, Nov. 27.— Sino-Japanese clashes threatened to spread throughout North China today following fighting between Japanese troops and Chinese rebels at Tientsin, and a battle at Jaoyangho, halfway between Hsinmin and Koupangtze, on the Peiping-Mukden railway in Manchuria.

Chinese military headquarters here announced that a Japanese armored train, carrying 700 troops, had occupied Jaoyangho after routing 200 Chinese.

At Tientsin, where the Japanese defended their concession with machine guns and trench mortars against an assault by Chinese irregulars, martial law was declared, and the Japanese authorities demanded that all Chinese troops be withdrawn six miles from the city.

Governor Wang of Hopei Province promised to withdraw the troops, as provided by the boxer treaty, but insisted Chinese police should remain on duty at the Tientsin water front.

To a further Japanese demand that there should be no Chinese troop movements in Hopei Province, Governor Wang replied the Japanese had no right to "dictate" to the Chinese authorities there, and that his troops were not hostile in any case "except under Japanese provacation."

International News Service Staff Correspondent

QUAI D'ORSAY, Paris, Nov. 27.—Alarmed by the Japanese advance toward Chinchow, Dr. Alfred Eze, Chinese delegate to the League of Nations, today appealed to the neutral powers to strengthen the authority of their military attaches in South Manchuria so that steps could be taken to prevent the Japanese from seizing the city.

Dr. Sze addressed his request to Aristide Briand, president of the League council, prior to a scheduled meeting of the neutral delegates to discuss a new formula for a Manchurian armistice and an investigation of the Sino-Japanese conflict by an international commission.

Although the League council has already instructed the military attaches at Chinchow to act as intermediaries in the event of a threat of renewed hostilities, Dr. Sze said he believed they should be given wider powers instead of being limited to acting as observers for the League.

The Japanese, Dr. Sze, declared were advancing steadily on Chinchow, making prompt and effective action necessary.

The British delegation received a report from the British attache in Chinchow that 1400 Japanese troops were proceeding to Chinchow along a neutral railroad. This was accepted in League circles as confirming the Chinese statement of the increasing seriousness of the situation in South Manchuria.

SWALLOWS METAL BALL EVERY DAY

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—To prevent him from starving to death, Earl Lanford, Charlotte, N. C., business man, swallows a heavy one-inch metal ball every day, physicians at the University hospital here revealed today. Lanford was admitted to the Bronchoscopic clinic of the hospital three years ago, when it was found he was gradually losing weight because food would not pass through his lower esophagus leading to his stomach.

To keep the aperature in the esophagus open, Lanford must swallow the metal ball, attached to a string, to the bottom of his stomach daily, then pull it out.. This practice prevents the esophagus from closing permanently, physicians asserted. At first a smaller ball was used but the size has been gradually increased until at present the ball measures one-thirty-second of an inch in diameter.

Snow Fails To Tie Up Traffic

Highway Department Not Called Upon To Clear Roads, As Snow Starts Melting

Although close to two inches of snow fell over the county during the night and this morning, there was little inconvenience to traffic, H. W. Lightner, in charge of the maintenance of way department, stated this morning.

In some cases it was necessary to ash the hills to protect motorists. Most of the snow on the country roads melted and turned into slush, Mr. Lightner reported. It was not necessary to bring the snowplows into use.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

An interest group meeting of the senior high school Girl Reserve club will be held Monday evening at the Y building.

Miss Margaret Brenner, school librarian of the Mahoning school will be the speaker this afternoon at 2:30 at the meeting of the Scioto street Girl Reserve club in the Y. W. C. A. building. Recognition of new members is being conducted.

A "stained glass window" is being made by Urania Askounes for the Sciota street Girl Reserve club and will be used in a symbolic way throughout the remainder of the year's program. Colored panes will be attached to the "window" one at each meeting, and will be symbolic of some Girl Reserve aim.

A meeting of the Union high school Girl Reserves cabinet is scheduled for Monday afternoon at 4:15 in the Y building.

The Merry Circle of the International Institute will meet in the Institute office at 7:30 Tuesday evening.

Weather Fine For Band Performance

Erie Visitors Find Ne-Ca-Hi Junior High Outfits Leading Welcome

The weatherman played his cards in favor of the football fans here on Thanksgiving, and as a result the visiting Erie East delegation saw one of Western Pennsylvania's best high school bands performing.

It was cold and snappy, but there was no sleet nor rain to damage instruments. Had there been, Ne-Ca-Hi's band would have taken no part in the Turkey Day program.

More Music emanated in another corner of the stadium when the high school band was resting, the capable Ben Franklin Junior high school musicians playing at intervals under Miss Evea Coulter's direction. Director J. F. Replogle led the Ne-Ca-Hi band.

SLEEPING CHILD BURNS TO DEATH

(International News Service)

GIRARD, O., Nov. 27.—Nicholas Gialdini, 8, is dead, and his sister, Carmela, 6, is in serious condition at St. Elzabeth's Hospital, Youngstown, as a result of a smoldering fire which damaged the home of the children's stepfather, Carmen Parilla of 404 South Market street, last of 404 South Market street, Wednesday night.

The children were asleep when the fire was discovered and by the time Volunteer Fireman Reese Phillips fought his way through the smoke to the room both had been overcome by smoke. The little boy was dead when Phillips brough him out, but the girl was revived and taken to the hospital.

The parents carried out a third child, but were unable to reach the other two. The fire did not cause much damage.

Grove City Woman Is Found Dead

Believed To Have Suffered Stroke While Alone In Bathroom

(Special To The News)

GROVE CITY, Pa., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Lillian Robinson, aged 64, widow of Rev. George Robinson, former Methodist Minister and also former superintendent of schools here, who was found dead in the bathroom of the home of her sister, Mrs. A. B. Randolph, Elm street, where she made her home, is believed to have suffered a final stroke and fallen into the bath tub, where she was found. She had suffered a number of slight strokes at prior times.

Mrs. Robinson had been a resident of this place since 1914. She was born in Parkman, O., and leaves one son, Ernest, a teacher in the schools of Titusville, Pa., and four sisters, Mrs. William Conrad of Parkman, O., Mrs. Anna Conet of Chagrin Falls, O., Mrs. Bertha Pritchard of Ravanna, O., and Mrs. A. B. Randolph of this place.

Funeral service will be held Saturday at the late residence here with Rev. C. E. Petree, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of this place in charge.

Christmas Seal Sale Is Started

Advance Orders And Money Being Received At Headquarters Now

Twenty-fifth annual sale of Christmas seals under the auspices of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society was inaugurated Friday in every part of the city and county. Packages containing 100 of the seals have been mailed to practically every home and place of business in the entire county, while today advance orders from banks and business houses for such of the seals as they plan to use in connection with their correspondence in the next few weeks, are being received.

At the headquarters of the society on the second floor of the Dollar Savings association in connection with other welfare organizations having offices there, it was stated that some money is beginning to come in from those persons, who received the envelopes containing the hundred seals and are not sending in their money in payment for the same.

Those who have received these packages are requested to make payment for the same as soon as possible so that the funds to carry on the work of the society may not be hampered from the lack of funds. Those desiring additional seals may also get them at the East street headquarters.

Mrs. W. A. Pond, chairman of the Christmas seal committee, and her assistants are making every effort to put this sale of seals over this year, so that the work done with the funds raised this way may not be hampered.

Remove Furnace Street Watchman

Watchman To Be On Duty At East Washington Street During Day

Council met in city hall today and indicated sanction would be given the P. R. R. system to remove a watchman from the Furnace street crossing until operations justified a watchman's presence and also the removal of the watchman at East Washington street excepting between the hours of 7 a. m. and 4 p. m.

The railroad official who appeared before council said that there are only three train movements across East Washington street during 24 hours. The railroad will keep the watchman on duty between the hours of 7 a. m. and 4 p. m. If there are any train movements at night the railroad employes will protect the crossing, it was explained.

Council instructed the railroad official to have a written request presented to council and the city would not oppose the removal when the application is filed with the Pennsylvania public service commission.

U. OF C. INCOME LESS, BUT NO SALARY CUTS

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 27.—Although income of the University of Chicago diminished in the last fiscal year, the school still has assets totaling $108,779,459, according to its financial report just published.

No large increases through endowments are expected in the next year, so drastic economies are contemplated. However these will not mean reductions in faculty salaries or reductions of personnel.

Expenditures for laboratory work, appropriations for building and grounds maintenance and book purchases for libraries will all be cut down through the economy program.

New Division For Waterways Has Been Formed

Mississippi Valley Association Creates Upper Ohio River Division

WARREN MAN MADE VICE PRESIDENT

According to information received by H. S. Warwick of Youngstown, an official of the Beaver, Mahoning and Shenango Rivers Improvement Association, a new division has been created which will be known as the Upper Ohio River Division.

This district includes the Ohio river starting at Wheeling and including Pittsburgh, the Monogahela, Allegheny, Beaver, Mahoning and Shenango; also the territory to Lake Erie.

W. B Rodgers of Pittsburgh was elected a member of the executive committee of the Mississippi Valley Association, while N. A. Wolcott of Warren, O., was elected a vice president of the Mississippi Valley Association.

The creation of the Upper Ohio river District means that the local area is now included as a part of the Mississippi Valley Association and will have the full support of that organization in the improvement projects contemplated in the local district.

ROTARY 1

Rotary Troop 1 met at the Benjamin Franklin Junior high school Tuesday evening. Scoutmaster Hite, Assistant Scoutmaster Rainey and most of the troop were present. Instruction in signalling was given. A hike was planned. The troop left at 1 o'clock today and returns Saturday. Mr. Rainey will be in charge of the hike. Tests in cooking and signalling will be given while at camp.

Scribe William Lackey.

TROOP 15

The troop held its first fall overnight hike to Camp John M. Phillips on the 20-22 with fifteen scouts in charge of Assistant Scoutmaster Ray Ziegler. The time was spent in passing tests in first and second class, and playing games such as "Capture the Flag" and tackle football.

Saturday evening the boys held an after-dark hike toward Grant City; visiting the ghost house, which turned out to be something new for the new members of the troop. Sunday morning the troop hiked to Rose Point and attended church there. The boys left for home at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, after reporting it the best hike they had held this year.

The troop held its regular meeting on Friday evening with thirteen scouts present. Test work in signalling and first aid was given. Two patrol meetings were held. There was one visitor present. A hike is planned for the following Saturday.

John Stump, Scribe.

TROOP 18—HIGHLAND U. P.

The troop turned out full force at its last meeting with fifteen present; and after opening exercises the scoutmaster, Mr. Mott, gave the boys an inspiring talk on the new point system. Instruction periods in semaphore signalling, conducted by Arthur Cohn and the scoutmaster, were then held. Since the last meeting 40 Red Cross posters were placed in stores and other places on the north hill; this making the troop good turn for November.

James Hartland, Reporter.

TROOP 55, TRINITY EPISCOPAL

Sixteen scouts were present at the regular troop meeting held on November 24, with eleven scouts in uniform. Rev. Pearson was also present. Games were played (basketball and fast ball) and instruction in first class work was also held. Patrol meetings were held during the troop meeting. A church parade was staged in the church last Sunday morning in connection with the regular morning service. A hike was held later on.

Scribe Bob Johnson.

TROOP VETERAN 1, ROTARY

Twenty-eight scouts were present at the regular meeting on Tuesday evening, with Scoutmaster Hite and Assistant Raney on hand. Instruction in signalling was given and other work lined up. The troop is coming on in good shape now.

William Lackey, Scribe.

Mercer County Driver Is Held

Pleads Guilty To Drunken Driving Following Accident Near Grove City

GROVE CITY, Nov. 27—Jay Klingensmith, aged 35, of Springfield township, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated before Squire O. E. Irwin here today, and was held for court in the sum of $1,000 bail.

Klingensmith was arrested after his machine had struck Samuel Fisher, Jr., aged five years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fisher of Mercer, yesterday causing serious injuries. For a time it was feared the tot had suffered a fractured skull, but officers of the Grove City hospital stated this morning that the child's condition was good and that no serious consequences were expected to result.

Hundreds Of Men Recalled To Work

Bethlehem Steel Company Workmen At Johnstown Are Affected

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 27.—Increasing signs of a continued upswing in the steel industry were noted here today with the announcement by L. R. Custer, General Manager of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation here that hundreds of men would be called back to work on a maintenance and improvement program about to be launched.

Custer's announcement followed on the heels of news from the McKeesport Tin Plate Company that its 3,000 employes in the Pittsburgh district would be placed on a full-time schedule during the month of December.

The Bethlehem program for improvement of its plant at Johnstown includes construction of a new works to house equipment for the heat-treating of car wheels and construction of a new bar-bending plant. Several obsolete hearth furnaces are to be dismantled.

Officials of the company did not disclose how much the new improvement program would cost.

Gun Toters Face Trial Under New Law, December 7

For the first time since the passage of the Witkin Firearms act in the regular session of the general assembly, this year, the Lawrence county courts will try several cases of violation of the act.

Thus far there are three cases scheduled for trial involving the illegal possession of firearms. As they will be the first cases of the kind tried in this court the outcome will be watched with interest.

District Attorney Powers has the cases ready for trial, along with the other cases listed on the trial list for December. The grand jury meets on Monday December 7.

Next Move Up To Governor Pinchot

Senator Davis Puts Question Of Donations Back To Governor

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The next move in the "Battle of the Keystoners," must come from Gov. Pinchot, it was apparent today, as Senator James J. Davis, reiterated his reply to the governor's challenge.

Pinchot had asked Davis to donate and lend as large a percentage of his income to unemployment relief in Pennsylvania as he himself would give. Pinchot proposed to issue state "prosperity bonds."

"Mr. Pinchot started this affair," Senator Davis declared today. "He sent me a letter asking me to give as much as he would, for unemployment relief. I don't see why anyone should say what I should give to charity.

"I was perfectly in earnest when I challenged Governor Pinchot to join me in giving both our incomes. I am also prepared to mortgage all of Mrs. Davis' realty holdings to purchase the Governors' issuance of 'Prosperity Bonds'.

"My letter speaks for itself. There is nothing more I can add. Mr. Pinchot is doing all the talking, he gave his letter to the press and made public my letter."

The debate opened when Pinchot asked Secretary Mellon for a $1,000,000 subscription to the bond issue. Mellon refused. Davis then declared, in what he says was a "jocular way" he would buy the bonds himself, while speaking at a meeting of Republican women at Harrisburg.

Railroad Displays Small Net Income

Pittsburgh And West Virginia Railroad Earning 25 Cents Share

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 27.—The Pittsburgh and West Virginia railroad for the first ten months of 1931 ending October 31 today reported a net income of $77,325 after taxes and other charges were paid.

This earning is equal to 25 cents a share on the 302,351 shares of stock outstanding as compared with a net of $1,312,994 or $4.34 a share for the first ten months of last year.

T. E. Taplin, president, issued the following statement:

"Pittsburgh and West Virginia should cover its fixed charges this year with a small margin to spare. November results will be disappointing. We are handling about 50 cars a day on the new Connellsville extension exchanging traffic with the Western Maryland."

LOS ANGELES.—Plans for America's new, first, one and only, poetry playhouse are rapidly nearing completion at the school of speech, University of Southern California, by Miss Cloyd Dalzell of the teaching staff. Seating approximately fifty people, the verse-playhouse on the Trojan campus is to be a miniature theatre. The stage and pit are to be interchangeable. Programs of poetic pantomime, ballets and other dances with poetic accompaniments, and dramatic adaptations of poems and poetic plays will be portrayed either on the platform or in the parquet, as the audience and acting sections are to be reversible.

Painful Piles

Go Quick—No Cutting—No Salves

It takes only one bottle of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt's prescription—HEM-ROID—to end itching, bleeding, protruding piles. This internal remedy acts quickly even in old, stubborn cases. HEM-ROID succeeds because it heals and restores the affected parts and removes blood congestion in the lower bowel—the cause of piles. Only an internal medicine can do this, that's why salves and cutting fail. Eckerd's and New Castle Drug Co. says HEM-ROID Tablets must end your Pile misery or money back.

The Epistle To Philemon

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

There is neither bond nor free. . . for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.—Galatians 3:28.

The Original Emancipation. Proclamation.

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

The Epistle to Philemon was written from Paul's prison in Rome at the same time and sent by the hand of the same messenger as Colossians, for Philemon was a leading member of the church at Colosse, in whose home the church met for its worship.

Onesimus was a slave of Philemon who ran away, probably stealing some of his master's money to assist him in reaching Rome. At Rome he came under the influence of Paul's preaching and was genuinely converted, and confessed his whole past to Paul, and was induced by Paul to return to his master at Colosse to try to make amends for his unfaithfulness.

To make the slave's return easier and to assume a kindly reception for the returning prodigal, Paul wrote this purely personal letter, which is a gem of courtesy and tact.

At one time this letter to Philemon was made the strong defense of human slavery. But to so regard it is utterly to miss its spirit and intent. In fact, it asserts a fundamental social principal, based upon the democracy of Jesus Christ, which, when finally accepted by society, outlawed human slavery in the civilized world.

It was a perfectly unique thing in that day when human slavery was so universally recognized, for any one of Paul's standing of a slave as Paul does of Onesimus: "For love's sake. . . I beseech thee for my child whom I have begotten in my bonds Onesimus, who was aforetime unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and to me, whom I have sent back to thee in his own person that is, my very heart."

He even dares to appeal to Philemon to receive back the runaway slave 'no longer as a servant, but more than a servant, a brother beloved, in the flesh and in the Lord."

Think of it A slave to be a "brother beloved" to his master because both are now Christians and servants of one common Master.

Paul was confident that his appeal for the runaway would be heeded, and that Philemon would go even beyond his request in love for Onesimus, for he says: "Having confidence in thine obedience I write unto thee, knowing that thou wilt do even beyond what I say."

It is this 'beyond" this "good measure" this "second mile" that interests us in studying the outlawing of human slavery. Paul did not command that Philemon should set Onesimus free. Neither did Jesus explicitly forbid human slavery. But both Jesus and Paul did proclaim principles of brotherhood and universal love, which when practiced even imperfectly, make human slavery impossible, because it becomes tollerable.

Thus the gospel of equality and brotherly love works quietly but irresistibly as leaven in the meal of society and human slavery has been outlawed by the love that goes 'even beyond what is commanded.'

War is the next worlc curse which must be outlawed. But it can only be done as men and women in sufficient numbers in all nations practice and brotherly love taught by Jesus, the love which 'goes beyond" and regards even the worst as 'a' brother beloved."

(The International Uniform Lesson for November 29 is entitled, "Paul's Letter to Philemon," the Golden Text being Gal. 3:28, "For there is neither bond nor free. . .for ye are all one in Christ Jesus."

ERIE EAST DEFEATS NEW CASTLE, 7-6

KOMINIC SCORES FOR NEW CASTLE GRIDDERS AT END OF THIRD PERIOD

4,000 Fans See Closing Game Of 1931 For New Castle Gridders, Thanksgiving Day At Taggart Stadium—Game Is Replete With Action—New Castle Holds Erie Team To Deadlock During First Half—Local Red And Black Clad Machine Secures Lead But Erie Overcomes Six Point In Short Time—Pass Sullivan To Andrusking From 30 Yard Line Results In Erie Team Score—23 Gridders Play Final Game For New Castle Eleven.

There were thrills galore at Taggart stadium Thanksgiving Day when 4,000 fans watched the New Castle high school football team lose a 7-6 verdict to a smooth Erie East high football eleven. The contest marked the close of the scheduled 1931 season for the local gridders.

Held on the one foot line for three downs after working the oval to the shadow of the goal line, J. Uram took Blossey's punt on the 29 yard line and returned to the 11 yard mark. Four line plunges brought the ball to the one foot line again where Kominic on the next play climaxed the march down the field when he hit the line for the only touchdown for the New Castle eleven in the third quarter.

A well directed pass Sullivan a left handed passer to Andrusking Erie's right end from the 35 yard line resulted in the touchdown for Erie in the final quarter. Sullivan drop-kicked successfully for the extra point that brought victory to the Erie team./ During the first half the New Castle boys battled the lake region school boys to even terms.

Exciting Game

The turkey day classic proved a good "dessert" to a crowd of 4,000 fans. It was an exciting contest from start to finish. Most of the playing in the first quarter was a punting duel. The two teams tried numerous passes in the hope of gaining ground but the heaves were either intercepted or knocked down. Blossey and DeCarbo, the two kickers made several nice boots that put the ball in safety. The first quarter ended with Erie in possession of the ball on the 18 yard mark.

Erie East started a march down the field immediately at the start of the second period. Blossey faked a pass and ran left for a first down. With the ball on the 37 yard line Blossey hurled a pretty pass to Andrusking. Andrusking was waiting for the heave near the goal line but missed the oval. It would have been a touchdown had he caught the ball.

Blossey kicked over the goal line and the local team received the ball on the 20 yard line. DeCarbo after one play kicked to Blossey who sliced his way to the 25 yard line before being nailed. Blossey tried another long pass near the goal line but Rafalowski missed the ball. Blossey again resorted to the atmosphere but DeCarbo, New Castle center intercepted on the 19 yard line.

New Castle got a good break after this play. DeCarbo kicked to Blossey in mid-field. The Erie backfield man dropped the boot and Ciccone recovered for New Castle in mid-field. After getting into a huddle the Tin City team decided to punt again. DeCarbo booted to Blossey near the goal line. Blossey was downed on the 15 yard mark.

Erie started a steady march down the field which almost culminated in a score. Blossey on the first play made 8 yards thru tackle. Crotty registered a first down on the following play. Blossey executed another good run thru the line which was good for another first down. A double pass Blossey to Rafalowski who replaced Laraway netted three more yards.

Blossey hurled a sweet pass to Arrowsmith who took it. The pass netted 24 yards. Blossey ran right end for 4 more yards. Blossey passed to Arrowsmith but it failed. This was another long pass. Erie was off-side on the next play and was penalized 5 yards.

Blossey took to the air again but a New Castle man knocked the ball down. Blossey made a beautiful kick near the corner of the 5 yard line but the ball went over into the end zone and New Castle received the ball on the 20 yard mark. McIver ran right guard for 2 yards, Kominic to J. Uram a double pass was good for only 1 yard. DeCarbo kicked to Blossey who was stopped in mid-field.

Two line bucks one by Blossey and one by Crotty netted 3 yards. Crotty to Blossey a double pass netted Erie its fourth first down of the game. Blossey passed to Thomas who was injected into the game in place of Arrowsmith. The pass was good for 9 yards. Crotty annexed another first down thru the line on the next play.

Erie tried a triple pass, Blossey to Rafalowski to Crotty which was good for 8 yards and which placed the oval on the 15 yard line. Blossey threw a pass to Rafalowski who was downed on the 2 yard line. Crotty hit the line and went over the goal line but the officials ruled the score did not count as the half was over before the ball was snapped from center. It was a good break for New Castle. The score at the half New Castle 0, Erie East 0.

Two fresh and inspired schoolboy elevens took the gridiron in the third quarter. After DeCarbo kicked off to Hiller who was stopped on the 44, Erie made a nice march down the field, Crotty to Rafalowski a double pass was good for 3 yards. Crotty faked a pass and ran the line for 3 yards. Blossey tried the same play and made a first down. Crotty tried the line again and this time made only 2 yards.

Blossey ran off-tackle for a first down placing the ball on the 21 yard mark. Blossey failed to gain around right end. Crotty on a fake reverse scored another first down. The ball rested on the 5 yard line as Crotty made 16 yards on the preceding play. Crotty hit center but could not gain.

A triple pass Crotty to Rafalowski to Blossey failed as Blossey was nailed 7 yards behind the scrimmage line. Rafalowski made no gain thru center. Blossey on the fourth down tried a pass which was knocked down. J. Uram on the first play made 4 yards off-tackle. DeCarbo made a pretty kick to Blossey who was nailed on his own 29 yard mark.

New Castle Scores

Blossey on the next play fumbled and DeCarbo recovered for New Castle on the 29. McIver to J. Uram a pass was incomplete. New Castle took too much time and received a 5 yard penalty. J. Uram ran off-tackle and made 3 yards. Kolodjeski replaced McIver on the next play.

Kolodjeski hurled a perfect heave to J. Uram who caught the ball and was stopped on the 10 yard mark. Kominic plunged his way to the 6 yard line. Rambo hit center and brought the ball to the 1 yard line. Kominic tried the line in hope of scoring but Erie wall held. Rambo tried the line but again it was firm and failed to gain an inch.

Erie received the ball on downs. Blossey behind his goal line made a good kick to J. Uram on the 29 yard mark. Uram zigzagged and knifed his way to the 11 yard mark where he was tackled. Kominic made 4 yards through the line. The ball rested on the 6 yard line. Kominic made 3 more yards thru center. A double pass Kominic to J. Uram around left brought the ball to the one yard mark. The short run gave New Castle a first down.

J. Uram on the next play brought the ball to the 1 foot line.

Kominic Scores.

Kominic, New Castle fullback.

Westminster Floor Candidates Start Grind For Season

Eight Veterans Left From Last Year—Phil Rice Is Captain Of Titans

Likely Looking Material Found Among Freshmen—Will Miss Douglas And Fisher

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 27—Football now in the discard for 1931, the Westminster Titan basketball candidates are busily engaged in getting into condition for the tough grind that awaits them starting about the middle of December and continuing through until March. After an absence of a year spent at Freeport High, Long Island, Coach John D. Lawther is back at the helm, and hopes to turn out another championship quintet.

Practice sessions are being held each night at the college gym. Lawther can devote all of his time to basketball now that the moleskins have been packed away.

Rice Is Captain

Some of the members of the football squad will not report until after the Thanksgiving recess. Among these are Walter Young, forward; Mauno Siljander, forward; Pete Leyshock, forward and possibly Henry Hunneke, forward.

Among candidates for the team the most likely looking are: Captain Phil Rice, guard; Harry Brownlee, center; Michael Kocheran, forward; John Hamas, forward; Gerald Newton, forward Ted Blaner, guard; Bill Williams, center; and Whitey Siljander, forward of the veterans.

New men with possibilities are: John Heeley, Freeport, L. I., forward; Henry Hunneke, Baldwin, L. I., forward; Peter Leyshock, Farrell, forward or guard; Walter Young, Freeport, L. I., forward or guard; Ray Southard, Freeport, L. I. forward or guard; Leslie Simpson, Saltsburg forward; and John Wilhelm, Kittanning, guard.

Have Tough Schedule

The Titans have a hard 16 game schedule, four more games than were played last season, on the regular card, and plan to play six or eight pre-season contests with leading teams in Ohio and in the Pittsburgh section. Included among the pre-season contests will be contests with Albion College of Michigan; Monmouth College of Illinois; Ohio University; College of Wooster; Akron Goodyear; St. Francis; Slippery Rock, and Edinboro.

The regular season starts in January and runs until March 8 giving the Titans plenty of district competition in their quests for another conference and district championship. With Marsh Fisher, guard; Bill Douglass, forward; Al Bobby, forward; Chuck Arthurs, center and Danny Considine, forward, all lost from last year's squad, the prospects for a championship team are far from bright.

Coach Lawther is taking up the basketball coaching job at Westminster after an absence of a year. He coached the 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929, and 1930 quintets, winning most of the games and three times taking the Tri-State Conference championship. During this time, no team succeeded in defeating the Titans twice in the same season, and only three teams succeeded in winning from Westminster on the home floor of the Titans.

Three Veterans

Captain Rice Brownlee and Kocheran are playing their fourth and last year for Westminster on the hardwoods. Blaner, Hamas, Williams and Newton are juniors. Siljander is a sophomore. The others on the squad are first-year men.

For the hard schedule ahead the Titans will need every available regular and substitute in the best of conditions. While Bethany will not be quite so strong this year, Grove City, Thiel, Allegheny, Waynesburg and Geneva will all boast better teams than they had last season.

Allegheny will have such stars as Garbark and Berger; Geneva will have Ransom, Aultman and Montgomery; Thiel will have its usual fighting outfit with a wealth of freshman material. Grove City will have the potentially strong team of last season strengthened by the addition of a tall center from New York State and a number of freshman stars from the best high school teams of the state.

Reider Suffers Severe Injury

Paul Reider, Star Pitt Halfback, Carried Off Field With Injured Shoulder

NEBRASKA TAKES 40 TO 0 BEATING

Paul Reider, Pitt's brilliant halfback and former New Castle high star, was severely injured in the final game of the Pitt schedule yesterday at the Pitt stadium. The Pitt team handed Nebraska a 40 to 0 defeat. Reider played but five minutes of the first quarter and was carried off the field with a badly bruised shoulder.

Reider was a marked man by the Nebraskt huskies. Reider's work in the Army game was broadcasted the country over and the Nebraska boys probably figured that Mister Reider should be removed from the scene as quickly as possible. Of course, they had to wait for the game to start, but they didn't wait much longer.

Reider was injured on the fourth or fifth play of the game on a drive through tackle. He was knocked out cold for three or four minutes, but stayed in the game. He muffed a forward pass from Heller a short while later, apparently still dazed. It was on the next play that two big Nebraska boys slammed Reider down and he was through for the afternoon. Mike Sebastian replaced the New Castle boy and played a whale of a game. Maybe Nebraska didn't mean to be so rough, but football is football and Reider was the man of the hour.

ALTOONA HIGH SECURES TITLE

John Harris High Of Harrisburg, Altoona State Title Holders

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa. Nov. 27—John Harris of Harrisburg, and Altoona were the champions in their respective divisions of the Central Pennsylvania interscholastic football conference today.

In winning 13 to 0 from William Penn of Harrisburg, John Harris garnered the Eastern division title, the city high school championship and prolonged its winning streak to three seasons. The John Harris eleven won its twenty eight consecutive triumphs in Bowlong over William Penna.

Altoona garnered the laurels of the Western division by downing Tyrone, 25 to 12. Jersey Shore finished the race in second place in the Western district.

BIKE RIDERS READY

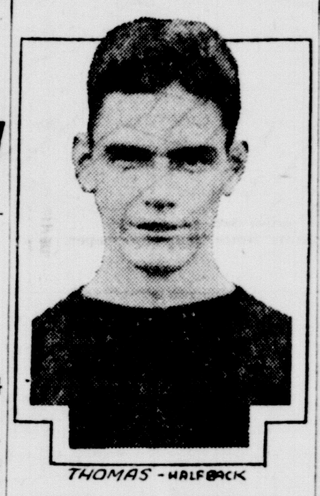
NEW YORK, Nov. 27—Fifteen international teams primed today for the six day bicycle race, which starts in Madison Square Garden Sunday night.

New Castle Boy Popular Member Of Grover Team

Dick Thomas, Former New Castle High Halfback Was Blocking Quarter At Grove City



THOMAS - HALFBACK

GROVE CITY, Pa., Nov. 27.—Grove City's football teams, it would seem, will have a Dick Thomas as a blocking back for eight years. For Dick Thomas of Sharon was graduated in June after four years of running interference for other Crimson backs, and in September Dick Thomas of New Castle, reported as a freshman. The second Dick Thomas was assigned the unenviable task of clearing the path for Grover ball-carriers. He learned the knack in jig time, and has been throwing himself in the way of would-be tacklers all season.

Carrying on the tradition of great Crimson blockers, Dick Thomas of Sharon succeeded "Pat" Paterlini, the first Crimson gridder to be used almost exclusively as a blocker. When the Sharon gridder received his diploma in June, he was appointed assistant football coach for this season. Reporting at the Crimson camp, he found a namesake registered as a halfback, Dick Thomas of New Castle. So Thomas taught Thomas what he knew about blocking, and the results were highly satisfactory.

The New Castle boy, who seldom carried the ball and spent his Saturday afternoons hurling his 170 pounds at the legs of opposing tacklers, has earned a peculiar niche in the Crimson grid squad. Although an effective ball carrier, which he demonstrated with four runs of at least 20 yards against Thiel last Saturday, and a good pass receiver, his main job was to clear the way so the other Grover backs could gain. His work assures Coach Charley Berry that his squad will have a Dick Thomas as a blocking back for possibly eight consecutive years.

About 500 Erie Fans Witness Game

Erie East High Band Also Accompanies Team Here For Game Thanksgiving

New Castle, Thanksgiving Day played host to some 500 ardent followers of Erie East high school's football team which played New Castle high yesterday at Taggart stadium. The Erie high band also accompanied the team here.

The football team and the fans arrived here about 1:00 o'clock and immediately went to the stadium. The Erie fans occupied the western bleachers of the field. These 500 or more fans cheered like a mad of several thousand.

City-County Grid Title At Stake In Game On Saturday

DeHart And Williams A. C. Will Play For Title At Centennial Field

The City-Country football championship is at stake tomorrow afternoon at Centennial Field when the DeHart A. C. and the Williams A. C. will tangle at 2:30 o'clock. The teams are evenly matched. A lively battle is looked for.

The DeHart A. C. lost but one game and that was to the Sacred Hearts 6 to 0. The Williams will make it interesting for the colored boys. Felix Adams is leader of the Williams team.

The officials are Reider referee, McIntosh, umpire and Joe Factor linesman.

Catholic League To Meet Sunday

The various managers and officials of the newly created Catholic league will meet Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. Mary's auditorium with "Jokey" Travers in charge of the meeting. The following teams are asked to have representatives present: St. Margaret's, St. Joseph's, St. Phillip and James, St. Lucy's, St. Michael's and St. Mary's. Player lists must be turned in at the meeting by the managers.

New Castle-Union To Play Post Season Game

Athletic Council Sanctions Benefit Game To Aid School Children

Mayor's Relief Committee To Select Date For Game To Be Played At Taggart Stadium

At a meeting of the athletic council of the New Castle high school, which was held Wednesday afternoon in the office of Principal F. L. Orth, the council sanctioned the plan to have New Castle high and Union township play a post-season game at Taggart stadium. The proceeds will go to the school children's division of the mayor's relief committee.

The mayor's committee will select the date for the contest. The date will probably be Saturday afternoon, Dec. 5. James K. Love will appoint the committee to handle the contest. Mr. Love presented the plan to the members of the athletic organization, who concurred on the idea.

In order to make the project a success it was planned to have everyone attending the game pay. Due to the fact that the game will bring together two local schools, it is believed that a big sum will be realized as a result of the post-season game. Further announcements concerning the game will be made later.

Sing Sing Eleven Again Defeated

White Plains Bulldogs Trim Prisoners 13 To 7 At Sing Sing, Thursday

(International News Service)

OSSING, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Inmates of the "Big House" were beginning to suspect today that the Sing Sing football team isn't so hot.

The convict eleven suffered its second defeat in three starts when it lost to the White Plains Bulldogs at the prison stadium yesterday, 13 to 7.

Four of the inmates, with megaphones, led an organized cheering section, the prisoners had their own "college songs," and Quarterback Alabama Pitts led the Sing Sing eleven in faultless style, but the boys just couldn't win.

Only 85 outsiders saw the game.

Carnera-Campolo Battle Tonight

Primo Carnera Confident That He Can Whip Argentine Butcher

HAPPY TO MEET MAN OWN SIZE

By FRANK G. MENKE
International News Service Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—A couple of Latin temperaments, and about 500 pounds of meat do a hookup here tonight in a battle of "what of it, anyway?"

Primo Carnera, hardly recovered from a fearful vanishing by Jack Sharkey, and Vittorio Campolo, recent victim of Ernie Schaaf's body fusilades—they are the principals on what may be comedy, burlesque or melodrama.

"I weel keel de beeg steef," was the threat of Campolo, who was a butcher in the Argentine, but who has been little more than a lamb for whom no alibis must be invented whenever he completes a brawl in the U. S. A.

Carnera Confident.

"Ha," snorted Carnera, "now I have zee man I can wheep deezy. A beeg bum. I do not haff to reach down to meet heem. I meet straight out with heem and when I meet a coopla times it weel be over queek like that, the beeg bum."

Showing that the boys seem to know each other very well indeed. This may save the customers throats during the exercises because it often happens that fighters do not know what they are in advance of the whish-whoosh and must be advised by the sarcastic patrons.

After reading the form charts it would seem that Campolo is the harder hitter, but that Carnera is the better receiver. Campolo can rattle bridges, monuments and footballs when he cracks down with that right paw. But he isn't as accurate as he might be or is he a follow-up socker.

Campolo Hits Hard.

If Campolo smacks solidly and the target does not fall. Vittorio regards this as a deadly insult by his foeman and it sometimes is a full minute before he can regain his composure and go on with his work which, as most everybody knows, isn't really the thing to do to achieve consistent ring success.

Carnera is a lad who regards his chin as his best weapon. He sticks it in the way of rivals and invites them to blaze away. Usually they do. In due course of time they either sprain their wrists or crack their knuckles, or grow excessively weary and fall over, thus ending the entertainment, giving the boys and girls a chance to troop into nearby spaghetti parlors for a midnight snack and further discussion of Primo's violin cases.

In conclusion it should be noted that the winner of Carnera versus Campolo, if any, should be acclaimed dreadnaught champion, which is equivalent to being chief of the fire department of the Mojave dessert.

League Meeting Called Tonight

The City-County Floor League managers and officials will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Sears, Roebuck and Company store with Tully Caiazza in charge of the meeting. The Gersons have entered the league with a strong team. The following teams should be represented tonight at the meeting: Hillsville, Sacred Hearts, Gersons, Bessemer, Polish Falcons, Kinks, East Brook M. E., Mt. Jackson, DeHart A. C., New Wilmington, Knights of St. Vitus, West Side and Wampum. Also any others desiring to enter the league.

KOMINIC SCORES FOR NEW CASTLE GRIDDERS

plunged the ball over the goal line on the next play. DeCarbo failed to place kick for the extra point. The third quarter ended shortly. Score: New Castle 6, Erie East 0.

New Castle started the final quarter with lots of fight. Erie again started a march down the field at the start of the final period when Crotty scored a first down on the first play. A double pass Crotty to Blossey around left netted two more yards. Rafalowski hit right end and scored a first down. Blossey lost three yards when he tried to hit right end. Crotty to Rafalowski, a double pass, was good for two yards. Blossey ran off tackle for two yards.

Erie Scores.

Blossey was hurt on the play and was removed from the tilt. Sullivan replaced him. Sullivan took the ball from center on the next play and tossed a pass from the 35-yard line to Andrusking, Erie right end, who caught the ball on the 2-yard line and ran over the goal line for Erie East's touchdown. Sullivan is a left-handed passer. He also drop kicked successfully between the posts for the extra point.

Local Threaten.

Immediately after Erie scored, New Castle again threatened by carrying the ball to the 14-yard line but lost it. Nickum, Ben Franklin junior high star, was injected in place of Kominic. J. Uram took Blossey's kickoff and passed to Nickum, who raced to the Erie 41 before being downed. A pass Kolodjeski to J. Uram was good for a first down. Kolodjeski tried another but it failed. New Castle was penalized five yards for two unsuccessful passes.

Kolodjeski hurled a pass to Rambo. It netted only five yards. The ball was on the 18-yard line. Kolodjeski passed to Nocera and the leave was good but netted but a few yards. Kolodjeski passed to Ciccone near the goal line but it failed. Erie took the ball here. Through a series of line plunges and a pass Erie moved the ball to the 34-yard mark as the game ended. The final score: Erie East 7, New Castle 6.

The game held the crowd in suspense from start to finish. It was a game that will be remembered for a long time. The passing of Blossey was noticeable as was his punting. DeCarbo's punting for New Castle also drew much comment from the spectators.

The Thanksgiving game saw some 22 gridders wearing the red and black uniform for the last time. Out of the first string team, Nick Uram, William McIver, Hib Reynolds, James Sotus and Joseph Wrona enacted their final games. Askounes, Ciccone, Cooper, DeFalco, Hileman, Crisci, Houk, Kakas, Kazenski, Mike, Nocera, Ostrosky, Quinn, White, Workman, Waggoner and Deep wore a local high uniform for the last time yesterday.

It was a moral victory for New Castle. There are few teams that have held Erie to such a low score.

For Erie the playing of Blossey was outstanding. Until he went out of the game he was a noticeable figure on the lake region team. He was in on every play. Andruking, he lad who caught that pass which brought victory for his team was also good. J. Uram was outstanding for New Castle in the backfield. On the line Ciccone, Thomas and DeCarbo starred.

The summary follows:

New Castle 6		Erie East 7
Nocera	L. E.	Causgrove
Crisci	L. T.	Hiller
Kazenski	L. G.	Cieslak
DeCarbo	C.	Eppler
Thomas	R. G.	Detzel
Askounes	R. T.	M. Stanley
Ciccone	R. E.	Andrusking
J. Uram	Q. B.	Arrowsmith
McIver	L. H.	Blossey
Rambo	R. H.	Laraway
Kominic	F. B.	Crotty

INDIANA WINS CELLAR TITLE

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—The University of Indiana Hoosiers were today set down in the records as being the best of the Big Ten cellar division teams. The lads from Bloomington achieved that distinction by emerging victorious from the Thanksgiving day charity football bazaar at Stagg field.

After accomplishing a technical victory over Illinois in the first 30-minute game of the tournament, the Hoosiers slapped the University of Chicago Maroons for a 6 to 0 victory in the playoff. The Maroons had reached the playoff by trouncing the Iowa Hawkeyes 7 to 0 in the second abbreviated game on the unusual program. Indiana and Illinois were tied at the end of 30 minutes of play, but the Hoosiers were declared victor by virtue of their eight first towns to the Illini four.

Rodgers Hopes To Beat Butch

Will Even Up Score As Butch Won Pittsburgh Bout Decision

BILLY BRENT TO BOX JIMMY TAYLOR

Practically every fight between left and right handed boxers here have been sensational affairs, the only drab performance having been between Tommy Arnold and Johnny Jennings, so fans will look forward to lots of action when Mose Butch, southpaw, tackles Jackie Rodgers, right handed puncher, Monday night at the bowl.

Rodgers has a good wallop in his right and Butch carries a good "kick" in his left. When they first met Butch was given a close decision and since that battle Rodgers has desired a return bout which will be staged here, and in what is a neutral zone.

Jackie has fought all of the most prominent bantamweights and featherweights in the country. Butch has been coming along steadily and recently turned in a victory over the veteran Johnny Datto. The Filipino lost the decision at Pittsburgh.

It looks as though the semi-final will be as hot as the main bout as Billy Brent of Pittsburgh will meet Jimmy Taylor of Cleveland in the six round semi-final. They are middleweights.

Brent has mingled with Mickey Solomon and other boys of his class. Taylor is well known here, having fought Frankie Frey and has been going good in nearby cities.

Promoter Meyers said today that among the four boys who would appear in the first two six round bouts would be Sammy Asto of Uniontown, brother of Don Asto, amateur featherweight champion.

The first bout Monday night will start at 8:45 p. m.

Football Teams To Wind-Up Season On Saturday Afternoon

Three Big Games Occupy Attention—Yale-Princeton—Notre Dame And Army

Stanford Comes East To Battle Dartmouth—Season To Officially End

By EDDIE CASEY
(Former All-America Half-Back And Now Head Football Coach At Harvard)
(Written for and Copyrighted 1931 By International News Service)

BOSTON, Nov. 27—The final game of the 1931 football season are upon us. Important games will be played tomorrow in New York, New Haven and Cambridge and then the decks will be cleared for a number of "unemployed" games and for a few scattered final games such as Southern California and Washington, Tulane and Washington State and Southern California and Georgia.

Princeton-Yale

The outstanding games on tomorrow's card involve Princeton and Yale, Dartmouth and Stanford and Army and Notre Dame. This game year after year becomes more and more one of the season's classics, and while Notre Dame will be a general favorite to repeat its victory of a year ago, I will be surprised if Army does not play its best game of the year.

This Army team started the season with bright prospects and, against Michigan State and Harvard in early October, seemed to fulfill predictions that it would be one of the greatest Cadet elevens. Beaten by Harvard and tied by Yale, the Cadets were further thrown off their stride by the unfortunate loss of Cadet Sheridan. Army traveled along, winning games that it had expected to win, but losing to Pittsburgh, a fine team. Pittsburgh had its day against Army. Southern California had its day against Notre Dame. Possibly Army will have that day tomorrow.

Irish Are Favored

Certainly Notre Dame on paper, a good Notre Dame team, drilled as only Rockne could drill, should win this game, the defeat at the hands of Southern California should stimulate Notre Dame. The team is too good a team to have ony other reation.

The Yale-Princeton game on papaper is probably the most unique in their rivalry. Princeton has been so unfortunate as to lose its last six games. It must face a Yale team that is one of the best Yale teams in years, a team that would be a better team tomorrow as a result of its Harvard game victory a week ago.

The only intersectional game of the day will be played between Stanford and Dartmouth at the Harvard stadium. It is the second of a two-game series, Stanford having defeated Dartmouth 14-7 on the coast last year.

Stanford-Dartmouth

Stanford's appearance in the east is waited with high interest, and there is considerable sentiment attached to the return to the stadium of Pop Warner, because it was on that historic field that his Carlisle elevens performed so notably 20 years ago. The various question marks which must surround Stanford because of its long trip across the continent and the uncertainties of the weather make the game a difficult one to forecast. Dartmouth should be primed to play its best game of the year, and may win.

Dartmouth Meets Stanford Eleven In Game Saturday

Leland Stanford Comes East To Play Dartmouth At Harvard Stadium

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—When Stanford and Dartmouth face each other in Harvard Stadium tomorrow, a star on each team may be missing.

It was still undecided today whether Stan Yudicky, who has been injured most of the season, will start for Dartmouth. In the Cardinal camp, Phil Moffat, star back, may not start as he is suffering from an old ankle injury.

Yudicky is captain of the Green team.

The Dartmouth squad will arrive here this afternoon and planned a brief workout in the stadium.

Coach Warner and his Cardinals saw the Colgate-Brown game at Providence yesterday, returning to the Belmont Spring Country club for their Thanksgiving dinner. The team will rest today.

HUNTER WOUNDED IN CLIMBING FENCE

ZANESVILLE, O., Nov. 27—Floyd Timberman 21, of Malta, suffered amputation of the second finger from his left hand in Bethesda hospital today after a hunting accident which occurred in Morgan county, near his home. He was climbing a fence when the gun was discharged.

CARNEGIE TECH BOWS TO N. Y. U.

Many of the leading football teams of the country rang down the curtain on Thanksgiving Day, some with victories and others not what one could call successful.

The Pitt Panthers sent their Eastern grid supremacy stock soaring another few points when they lumbasted Nebraska for a 40 to 0 setback at the Pitt Stadium. Pitt was defeated but once this year and that a little lesson by Notre Dame.

Carnegie Tech didn't fare so well at New York, and had to content themselves with a 7 to 6 defeat by New York University. Not a bad stand against the Coach Meehen crew.

Dukes Defeated

Duquesne took one on the chin down South when Howard College of Birmingham, Alabama slipped over a 13 to 7 score. West Virginia Wesleyan with Cliff Battles playing his final game and scoring two touchdowns defeated Marshall 13 to 0 Ohio Wesleyan anihilated Western Reserve 25 to 7. Cornell surprised the football world by topping the highly touted Penn eleven 7 to 0.

Tennessee's claim to something or other below the Mason-Dixon line was knocked into discard when a fighting Kentucky eleven held them 6-6. Gene McEver, the star Tennessee back, never got started. University of California, Los Angeles, took a 13 to 0 victory over Florida. Holy Cross came through with a 7 to 6 victory over Boston College.

Kansas Aggies ended their season by trimming Washburn 13 to 0. Alabama defeated Vanderbilt 14 to 6. Colgate upset Brown 13 to 7.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

One of the oddities of Thanksgiving day football games was the victory over Franklin & Marshall over Gettysburg. F. & M. won 2 to 0. Draca, a Gettysburg substitute, intercepted a pass, was forced behind his goal line and tackled in the third period.

And now that football is out of the way the coaches throughout the country will commence priming for basketball.

Local hunters welcomed the cool weather and gave vent to shouts of joy when snow fell today. Deer season starts December 1.

CONCEALED ASSETS, GETS PRISON TERM

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 27.—Trying to beat Uncle Sam's bankruptcy laws cost Leo Roos, Anderson jeweler, and his wife Lena, heavily in federal court here. Convicted of concealing nearly $100,000 worth of assets, Roos was fined $5,000 and sentenced to serve five years in Leavenworth prison by Federal Judge Robert C. Baltzell. Mrs. Roos was fined $2,500 and was given fifteen months at the woman's reformatory at Alderson, W. Va. The Rooses were alleged to have faked a holdup to conceal the assets.

Ready For Deer Season

Hunting Paries Organized For Opening Of Season December 1

Guns are being oiled and sighted as hunters prepare to wend their way to the deer country to be ready for the opening of the season when dawn breaks December 1. Lawrence county hunters show a favortism for Forrest, Elk, Cameron and Clearfield counties.

Among the hunters who are preparing to hunt deer, and their destinations, are:

John Brinton and Isaac Anderson, Marionville, Forrest county.

Ira Butler, R. M. Thompson, James Williams, Neal Williams, James Shaffer, Muzette, Forrest county.

Mont Richards and Ray Richards, Benezette, Elk county.

Dr. J. C. Hunt and Charles Kelly, Sterling Run, Cameron county.

Joseph Baun, Elder Bryan, Scott McCaslin, Frank McCaslin, Fred Mayne and Joseph Haun, Forrest county.

Dr. F. E. Eakin, Dr. W. W. Horner, Wayne Stitzinger and additional hunters, Clearfield county.

A. C. McCoy, T. C. Post, J. W. Penner and other members of Ward's ranch, Forrest county.

AN EXPENSIVE BOOK

(International News Service)

PARIS.—One of the most expensive publications Parisians have ever seen has just been put out by Albert Skira. It is the de luxe edition of the "Metamorphosis of Ovid" and represents a monumental ensemble of the work of Pablo Picasso, well known artist. Thirty superb etchings, including the original maquette, illustrate the famous mythological poem, making the appearance of this work something of an event in bookmaking. The figures of Picasso are full of energy and freshness expressed by the simplest and purest stroke of this artist.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Downward Trend To Market Prices Today

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Stocks, Bonds and Grain were carried down to lower price levels at the re-opening of the American markets after the Thanksgiving holiday today. Wheat, Corn and Oats set the early downward pace, responding to a sharp drop in the Liverpool and Winnipeg markets.

A fairly heavy accumulation of selling orders was ready for the market at the opening bell and losses in the favorites extended from 1 to 4 points. The rails were all under pressure, with New Haven and New York Central falling off to low levels. Union Pacific dropped an additional 5 points to 81½, completing a 23½-point decline from last Saturday's close. Pennsylvania fell off to a new low at 22¾, down 2.

United States Steel declined 2½ points to 55⅛ in the first fifteen minutes, but steadied around 55¾ for the balance of the forenoon. American can lost 2½ at 69⅛ and rallied fractionally. American Tel and Tel slipped back 2½ points and Western Union sold fractionally lower.

Most of these losses were recorded in the first period, when professional and outside selling was heaviest. The Utility, Oil, Copper and Automobile stocks displayed greater firmness.

Bonds were fairly steady with the exception of the rails, which followed their irregularly downward course. Call money was unchanged at 2½ per cent.

POSTOFFICE TO SERVE TWIN CITIES

Located exactly on the state line dividing Texas and Arkansas, at Texarkana, a new million-dollar postoffice will serve the twin cities and house federal courts of both states. The state line passes through the building's center door. A problem of confusion which has existed for years over mail addressed to persons in both cities is expected to be solved by the single postoffice.

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY WILLIAM RITT

Written Exclusively For Central Press And New Castle News.

Hobart, 13; Rochester, 7.

That's what that line of type—a tiny, two-inch parade of 15 letters and three numerals—said. It was hard to find, all but hidden in that storm of headlines and glowing sports literature which roared two stunning facts to readers of football finals last Saturday.

"Trojans Stop Irish!" and "Yale Beats Harvard!" Two incredible, impossible events had taken place on two gridirons 1,000 miles apart and while a nation read and gasped that little line of type went unnoticed.

But there it was: Hobart, 13; Rochester, 7.

And, forever, to the men of Hobart that line will be a sacred one, to be repeated as one chants a litany of faith.

That line—Hobart, 13; Rochester, 7—concludes one of the strangest sagas of the football fields. It locks the gate to a savage morass of constant defeat through which Hobart floundered for three full years. It is Hobart's dawn after the most frightful nightmare a loyal student body has ever experienced.

And strangely enough it was Rochester that permitted Hobart to put a final end to her apparently endless days of disgrace. Strange—but eminently satisfying to the men of Hobart for it was Rochester that started Hobart on the road to football ruin 'way back in 1928.

From the Rochester-Hobart game of 1928 to the Hobart-Rochester game of last Saturday, Hobart College won no football games and lost 27—in a row!

Here is the incredible Hobart record:

1928

Rochester, 20; Hobart, 18.
Syracuse, 77; Hobart 0.
Dartmouth 68; Hobart 0.
Union 28; Hobart 13.
Williams 47; Hobart 0.
Clarkson 25; Hobart 0.
Hamilton 19; Hobart 6.
Alfred 19; Hobart 7.
Buffalo 13; Hobart 7.
Rochester 13; Hobart 0.

New York U., 35; Hobart 0.
Syracuse 49; Hobart 0.
St. Lawrence 39; Hobart 0.
Williams 65; Hobart 0.
Hamilton 6; Hobart 0.
Alfred 19; Hobart 0.
Cornell 54; Hobart 0.
Buffalo 20; Hobart 6.
Rochester 28; Hobart 0.

1931

New York U., 65; Hobart 0.
Syracuse 49; Hobart 0.
St. Lawrence 51; Hobart 0.
Union 33; Hobart 7.
Kenyon 26; Hobart 7.
Alfred 2; Hobart 0.
Long Island 14; Hobart 6.
Buffalo 29; Hobart 6.

And it is not a paradox to say that Hobart men should be proud of Hobart.

As year of defeat followed year of defeat the Hobart spirit never wavered. Though Hobart's football efforts became the butt of a nation's joke. Hobart's teams a laughing stock—there were always 11 boys willing to wear Hobart colors and alumni and student body always at hand to cheer them on.

And That is the genuine brand of school spirit.

Maybe Hobart, now, will win all games next year, the next and the next. Hobart has earned that kind of break.

Smedley D. Butler, Discusses Warfare At His Newtown Square Home

Says Japan Has Precedent In Manchurian Invasion —Cites U. S. Activity

By QUENTIN REYNOLDS

NEWTOWN SQUARE, Pa., Nov. 27.—"Treaties among nations are fine but when you sign a treaty with your right hand you should have a club in your left, just in case. It's every man for himself in this world and that goes for nations too. No one is going to fight your battles for you."

Smedley D. Butler, country gentleman, was sitting at his ease in his beautiful Colonial home just twenty miles from Philadelphia. It was peaceful and restful but we were talking of war. Mr. Butler you see, used to be in that business himself.

Is U. S. Clean?

"Listen friend," Butler leaned forward earnestly. "You know why Japan is causing all that row in Manchuria? I'll tell you. Because Japan isn't afraid of China. Now you wouldn't go up and take a poke at Jack Dempsey would you? He's too well prepared. If a country is well prepared no one is going to attack her. Treaties? They don't make any difference.

"I don't know much about the Manchuria situation," Butler continued. "I did know human nature. I know too that we can't condemn Japan for what she is doing. Didn't we do something like that in the Phillipines? Are our hands entirely clean in the Nicaragua affair?"

Retired For Good

"I'm retired for good" Butler assured the writer.

"Benny Leonard once said that," his inquisitor reminded him, "so did Jack Dempsey. They're both coming back. You'll come back some day."

"Not a chance!" he swept an arm around the room filled with trophies and souvenirs of his foreign service "What can the country offer me to take the place of this."

"I have two sons . . . No one who has sons wants another war. That's why I'd like to see this country so well prepared that no one would dare attack us. . . . But as for me. I'm through with war."

"You saw that magazine article in which I said to hell with admirals?" Butler asked suddenly. "People will criticize me for that but I wan't talking to people. I was taking to the marines. I wanted to let them know why I was resigning. I talk their language. They talk mine. No one like them—the marines.

Going To Loaf

"But I said we wouldn't talk of war. Let me show you over the house. It was an old house I remodeled. I'm not going to do a thing. This is a great place to loaf. I want to stay here and play with this house."

He wasn't the fire eating general now. He wasn't the toughest soldier in the world.

He was Smedley Butler, country gentleman. What did he care for the silly business of war.

"Goodbye," Butler finally said, "sorry I couldn't give you a story about Manchuria but I don't know a thing about it. You know . . . you know I'd like to be over there now. I'd like to be watching that war."

BOY'S MISS DAILY CHORES

(International News Service)

KANSAS CITY—The boy of today, having no daily chores to do as did his father who was reared in a small town or in the country, has a harder life than did his parent, in the opinion of George H. Charno, member of the Kansas City Boy Scout Council. Mr. Charno explained that today's boy must learn his lessons in discipline in another manner. The result is that the largest percentage of prisoners in state penitentiaries are between 17 and 20 years old.

French Deputies Vote Confidence To Premier Laval

Premier Laval's Foreign Policy Given Approval By French Deputies

FRANCE TO TAKE NO REDUCTIONS

(International News Service)

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Premier Pierre Laval's foreign policy, especially with respect to his understanding with President Hoover over the future handling of reparations and war debts, today stood approved by the Chamber of Deputies.

After a long debate on foreign relations, the premier received a vote of confidence on his "program of international co-operation." The vote was 325 to 125.

In summing up the government's policy in regard to intergovernmental obligations, Laval said that there would be no new reparations arrangement except for the period of the present economic depression, that France would accept no reduction on the reparations except as her war debts were reduced, and that reparations would receive priority over Germany's private debts.

PRISONERS FARE WELL ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving dinner consisting of roast pork, mashed potatoes, apple sauce and desserts was furnished by Sheriff Frank Johnston to about 57 prisoners in the county jail yesterday. In the evening, tea, baked beans and ginger bread were among the eatable on the bill of fare. It is needless to say that the prisoners enjoyed their Thanksgiving feed. Among the inmates are four women.

Fears Expressed For Flier Trying To Span Atlantic

Bert Hinkler, Noted Australian Flier Trying South America To Africa Flight

(International News Service)

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Fears were expressed here today for the safety of Bert Hinkler, noted Australian aviator, who left Natal, Brazil, on Wednesday on a 1500-mile flight to Dakar, French West Africa, and has not been heard from since.

Bert Hinkler in October made record flights from New York to Kingston, Jamaica, and from Kingston to Rio De Janeiro prior to his attempt to span the South Atlantic.

He formerly held the England-Australia flight record.

Ships On Search

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 27.—Ships in the South Atlantic and airplanes operating along the South American and African coasts were asked today to search for Bert Hinkler, noted Australian aviator, who took off from Natal Wednesday for an unannounced destination.

Although Hinkler headed eastward from Natal apparently with the intention of making a 1500-mile flight to Dakar, French West Africa, it was learned that he remarked before his departure that he expected "To see Australia in a few hours."

Report Landing

(International News Service)

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Bert Hinckler, Australian airman feared lost on the first west-to-east flight across the South Atlantic, landed safely at St. Louis, Senegal, at 2 p. m. today, according to word received here. He planned to leave immediately for Port Etienne.

HEARING HELD ON COST OF SEWER

Hearing was held before viewers, Attorney Clarence Patterson, T. E. Weide and Albert Treser, at the court house this morning to determine assessments to be made for the Cascade street sewer. Total cost of the improvement was $1244. The viewers placed the costs on the abutting property owners, according to their interests.

Rejected Suitor Wounds Girl And Commits Suicide

Aliquippa Man Goes To Wheeling Home And Stages Fatal Shooting

(International News Service)

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 27.—Helen Gregory, 19, of Duquesne, Pa., lay seriously wounded at the home of a sister here today, victim of a jealous suitor who sent a fatal bullet crashing through his own brain when the girl refused his attentions.

Michael Blazic, 25, of Aliquippa, the suitor, came to the home of Mrs. Joseph Prublich, Helen's sister, and attempted to make an appointment with the girl. Mrs. Prublich said Blazic had written a number of letters to Helen but that none were answered.

His plea again refused, Blazic drew the weapon from his pocket and fired at the girl. When she fell, he seized her in his arms, and held her for several minutes. Then, he sent the bullet crashing through his head. Blazic died instantly.

Wants Council To Inspect Situation

Zeigler Says "Run" Creates Water Nuisance During Wet Weather

Council met in the municipal building today and agreed to go to Leasure Avenue and study a storm water condition complained of by Joseph Zeigler. It may result in a 300 foot sewer being built.

Zeigler resides at 1410 Leasure avenue. He reported there is a "run" from the vicinity of North Mercer street and Garfield avenue which becomes swollen creating a situation that can be demedied, he told council. He said a sewer may have to be built which would be 300 feet long.

Council agreed to visit the section in an effort to work out a solution.
